DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

Claimant: Appellant (4)

871 IAC 24.9(1) – Monetary Determination

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant appealed an August 19, 2011 monetary determination that concluded he was not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits, because he did not have any wages reported in his base period. The claimant appealed this determination on September 3, 2011.

The claimant's appeal prompted the Department to investigate work the claimant performed for DJEJB, Inc. As a result of the investigation, the Department issued a corrected monetary determination on September 20, 2011. The corrected monetary September 20 determination resolved the issue the claimant had appealed. The claimant agreed on September 28 there was no need to participate in the scheduled September 29 hearing.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

A corrected monetary determination issued on September 20, 2011, held the claimant eligible to receive a maximum weekly benefit amount of $186.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Based on new information, the Department issued a corrected September 20, 2011 monetary determination that resolved the issue the claimant had appealed. Therefore, the hearing scheduled on September 29 is cancelled.

DECISION:

The August 19, 2011 monetary determination has been amended. Based on additional information, on September 20, 2011 a corrected monetary determination was issued and holds the claimant eligible to receive a maximum weekly benefit amount of $186.
