ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

Claimant: Appellant (2)

---

Iowa Code § 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated February 6, 2023, (reference 01) which held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on March 2, 2023. Claimant participated. Employer failed to respond to the hearing notice and did not participate. Claimant's Exhibit A was admitted into evidence.

ISSUE:

The issue in this matter is whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on August 2, 2022. Claimant stated that she quit working for employer for a couple of reasons. First and foremost, claimant was hired as a full time merchandiser and worked in that position from her time of hire in August of 2019 until around July of 2022. Then claimant's hours were reduced to around 18 hours per week. Although claimant offered to work in other departments to pick up enough hours to put her back to full time, employer refused to offer claimant additional hours. In addition to her hours being reduced, claimant had an ongoing conflict with her supervisor. When claimant came forward with complaints, the supervisor indicated that it might be in claimant's best interest if she just quit. Claimant took this statement to mean that there was not going to be ongoing work available for her if she chose not to quit, so claimant did quit.

Claimant was hired two days later by Bare Minerals and worked for that company until December 31, 2022, when the store shut down. Claimant's weekly benefit amount is $276.00. Claimant earned $4,375.00 with Orveon Global US (the parent company of Bare Minerals).

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(1) provides:

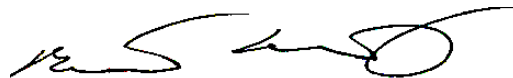

Voluntary quit with good cause attributable to the employer and separations not considered to be voluntary quits. The following are reasons for a claimant leaving employment with good cause attributable to the employer:

(1) A change in the contract of hire. An employer's willful breach of contract of hire shall not be a disqualifiable issue. This would include any change that would jeopardize the worker's safety, health or morals. The change of contract of hire must be substantial in nature and could involve changes in working hours, shifts, remuneration, location of employment, drastic modification in type of work, etc. Minor changes in a worker's routine on the job would not constitute a change of contract of hire.

The administrative law judge holds that the evidence has establish that claimant voluntarily quit for good cause attributable to employer when claimant terminated the employment relationship because employer cut claimant's hours to less than half of what they had been for over a year since she was hired. Employer cut claimant's hours for business reasons while claimant was still able and available to continue to work full time hours. Her quit was for good cause attributable to actions of employer. Benefits are allowed.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated February 6, 2023, (reference 01) is reversed. Unemployment insurance benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
