APPEAL 23A-UI-00297-JD-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 12/26/21
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j – Voluntary Quitting – Temporary Employment
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.10 – Employer/Representative Participation Fact-finding Interview

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On January 11, 2023, Iowa Staffing, Inc., (employer/appellant) filed an appeal from the January 3, 2023, reference 04, unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits. A telephone hearing was held on January 30, 2023 pursuant to due notice. The claimant, Travis Egley, did not participate. The employer Iowa Staffing, Inc., participated through witness Laurie Simmons, Account Manager. Employer's Exhibits 1-4 were admitted into the record. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Did the claimant voluntarily quit by not reporting for an additional work assignment within three business days of the end of the last assignment?
Has the claimant been overpaid any unemployment insurance benefits, and if so, can the repayment of those benefits to the agency be waived?
Can any charges to the employer's account be waived?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was a temporary employee of this temporary employment firm. On August 30, 2022, the claimant had completed paperwork with the employer, including signing the employer's assignment policy. See Ex 1. He received a copy of the policy.

Claimant received his job assignment from the employer to work at Hawkeye Molding. He worked as a full-time laborer. Claimant began his assignment on August 31, 2022 and worked until November 18, 2022, when his assignment ended. The claimant requested additional work from the employer and it was determined another assignment was available at Kness Manufacturing. An interview was set up between the employer and the claimant for November 29, 2022. The claimant failed to show up for his interview and did not contact Iowa Staffing about another assignment until early 2023.

The administrative record reflects that claimant has neither filed for nor received unemployment insurance benefits, since December 3, 2022. Employer participated in the fact-finding interview.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code § 96.5(1)(j) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. (1) The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

(2) To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph:

(a) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their workforce during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(b) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(15) provides:

Employee of temporary employment firm.

a. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm within three days of completion of an employment assignment and seeks reassignment under the contract of hire. The employee must be advised by the employer of the notification requirement in writing and receive a copy.

b. The individual shall be eligible for benefits under this subrule if the individual has good cause for not contacting the employer within three days and did notify the employer at the first reasonable opportunity.

c. Good cause is a substantial and justifiable reason, excuse or cause such that a reasonable and prudent person, who desired to remain in the ranks of the employed, would find to be adequate justification for not notifying the employer. Good cause would include the employer's going out of business; blinding snow storm; telephone lines down; employer closed for vacation; hospitalization of the claimant; and other substantial reasons.

d. Notification may be accomplished by going to the employer's place of business, telephoning the employer, faxing the employer, or any other currently acceptable means of communications. Working days means the normal days in which the employer is open for business.

The plain language of the statute allows benefits for a claimant "who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an assignment and who seeks reassignment." The claimant contacted the employer within three working days of the notification of the end of the assignment. The claimant failed to report for his interview with his new assignment on November 29, 2022, and failed to contact the employer until early 2023. The claimant would be eligible for benefits for the week-ending November 26, 2022, the week between the ending of the claimant's last assignment and the proposed start of his next on November 29, 2022. If applicable. Benefits are denied effective December 3, 2022.

Because no benefits were paid to claimant since December 3, 2022, the issues of overpayment, repayment and chargeability are moot.

DECISION:

The January 3, 2023 (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant's separation was disqualifying due to the claimant's voluntary quitting of work. Unemployment insurance benefits funded by the State of Iowa are denied until the claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times his weekly benefit amount after his separation date, and provided he is otherwise eligible.

The issues of overpayment, repayment and chargeability are moot.
