ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 9/3/23
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant, Natalie Heil Likanchuk, filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated October 10, 2023, (reference 02) that held claimant was eligible for unemployment insurance benefits after a separation from employment. After due notice, a telephonic hearing was scheduled for and held on October 31, 2023. Claimant, Natalie Heil Likanchuk, participated personally. Employer, Kwik Shop Inc, did not participate. Claimant's Exhibits 1-9 were offered and admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Was the claimant discharged for disqualifying job-related misconduct?
Did the claimant voluntarily quit?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant was hired on September 21, 2021 as an assistant manager. The claimant last worked on September 6, 2023 from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. The employer closed on September 4, 2023. The employer asked the claimant to come in to pack up liquor on September 6, 2023. The claimant did help pack on September 6, 2023. The claimant remained available to work and never submitted a resignation. The claimant was asked to return to work the next day, September 7, 2023. She was unable to work on September 7, 2023 due to her son's medical appointment. She was never scheduled or asked to return to work again after September 7, 2023. She texted with her supervisor, James Moses, on September 14, 2023 and was informed no work was available for her.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant did not quit, but was discharged from employment for no disqualifying reason.

Iowa Code §96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

2. Discharge for misconduct. If the department finds that the individual has been discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment:

a. The individual shall be disqualified for benefits until the individual has worked in and has been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.32(1)a provides:

Discharge for misconduct.

(1) Definition.

a. "Misconduct" is defined as a deliberate act or omission by a worker which constitutes a material breach of the duties and obligations arising out of such worker's contract of employment. Misconduct as the term is used in the disqualification provision as being limited to conduct evincing such willful or wanton disregard of an employer's interest as is found in deliberate violation or disregard of standards of behavior which the employer has the right to expect of employees, or in carelessness or negligence of such degree of recurrence as to manifest equal culpability, wrongful intent or evil design, or to show an intentional and substantial disregard of the employer's interests or of the employee's duties and obligations to the employer. On the other hand mere inefficiency, unsatisfactory conduct, failure in good performance as the result of inability or incapacity, inadvertencies or ordinary negligence in isolated instances, or good faith errors in judgment or discretion are not to be deemed misconduct within the meaning of the statute.

This definition has been accepted by the Iowa Supreme Court as accurately reflecting the intent of the legislature. Huntoon v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 275 N.W.2d 445, 448 (Iowa 1979).

A voluntary quitting means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer and requires an intention to terminate the employment. Wills v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 447 N.W. 2d 137, 138 (Iowa 1989); see also Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(35). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980). Where a claimant walked off the job without permission before the end of his shift saying he wanted a meeting with management the next day, the Iowa Court of Appeals ruled this was not a voluntary quit because the claimant's expressed desire to meet with management was evidence that he wished to maintain the employment relationship. Such cases must be analyzed as a discharge from employment. Peck v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 492 N.W.2d 438 (Iowa Ct. App. 1992)

In this case, the claimant remained available to work for the employer, other than September 7, 2023 when her son had a medical appointment. The claimant never expressed a desire to stop working or resign. The employer did not place the claimant on a schedule or call her back to work after September 7, 2023. The claimant did not quit, but was discharged from employment.

An employer may discharge an employee for any number of reasons or no reason at all if it is not contrary to public policy, but if it fails to meet its burden of proof to establish job related misconduct as the reason for the separation, employer incurs potential liability for unemployment insurance benefits related to that separation. In this case, the employer did not participate in the hearing and provided no evidence for the claimant's discharge. As such, the employer has not met the burden of proof to establish that claimant engaged in misconduct. Benefits are allowed.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated October 10, 2023 (reference 02) is reversed. Claimant is eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits, provided claimant meets all other eligibility requirements. The benefits withheld based upon this separation shall be paid to claimant.
