Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work/Work Search

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Joseph Edelstein, the claimant/appellant, filed an appeal from the Iowa Workforce Development March 28, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance (UI) decision. The decision warned Mr. Edelstein to engage in at least four reemployment activities, including at least three job applications each week, and keep a record but did not deny him REGULAR (state) UI benefits. The Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals UI Appeals Bureau mailed a notice of hearing to Mr. Edelstein for a hearing scheduled for April 14, 2023. The undersigned administrative law judge did not hold a hearing because there was sufficient information in Mr. Edelstein's appeal letter, and the administrative record to resolve the matter without testimony. The undersigned took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was the work search warning appropriate?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Mr. Edelstein filed his initial UI claim effective March 19, 2023. He filed a weekly claim for the week of March 19-25, 2023. Mr. Edelstein's IowaWorks profile shows he applied to one job on March 20, 2023 and three other jobs on March 24, 2023. Mr. Edelstein explained in his online appeal that initially he did not realize that he needed to not only apply for the jobs, input the job search information into the IowaWorks website, but also certify his job searches. Mr. Edelstein's IowaWorks profile shows he certified his four job searches for the week of March 19-25, 2023 on March 26, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the undersigned concludes Mr. Edelstein made an active and earnest search for work the week of March 19-25, 2023.

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(28) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(28) A claimant will be ineligible for benefits because of failure to make an adequate work search after having been previously warned and instructed to expand the search for work effort.

Mr. Edelstein applied to four jobs the week of March 19-25, 2023. Mr. Edelstein has sufficiently demonstrated to the satisfaction of the undersigned an active and earnest search for work for this week. The work search warning was inappropriate.

DECISION:

The March 28, 2023, (reference 01) UI decision is REVERSED. Mr. Edelstein made an active and earnest search for work the week of March 19-25, 2023. The warning was inappropriate.
