Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.22(1) – Able to Work - illness, injury or pregnancy

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(35) – Availability Disqualifications

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On April 28, 2023, the claimant filed an appeal from the April 25, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon the determination that claimant was on an approved leave of absence. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on May 16, 2023. The claimant, Norma Ladouceur, participated personally. The employer, Atlantis Penn Place Opco LLC, participated through Brenda Hoftetler. Claimant's Exhibit A was admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is claimant able to and available for work?

Is claimant on an approved leave of absence?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began employment on May 10, 2022, as the waitstaff supervisor. She reports to Mike Kopp. As of the date of her unemployment appeal hearing, she remains employed with the employer.

Claimant last worked on April 7, 2023. Shortly thereafter, claimant became very ill. She saw the doctor the following week and was told she was unable to work due to her medical conditions. The doctor's restriction that prevents claimant from working remains in place. There is no prospective date for when claimant can return to work at this time.

Claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of April 9, 2023. She has filed no weekly continuing claims since that date.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant is not able to work and available for work effective April 9, 2023.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.22(1)a provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(10) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(10) The claimant requested and was granted a leave of absence, such period is deemed to be a period of voluntary unemployment and shall be considered ineligible for benefits for such period.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(35) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(35) Where the claimant is not able to work and is under the care of a medical practitioner and has not been released as being able to work.

Inasmuch as the medical condition is not work-related and the treating physician has not released the claimant to return to work with or without restriction, she has not established her ability to work while still an employee of this employer effective April 9, 2023. Since claimant has not been released to work, she is not considered able to or available for work.

DECISION:

The April 25, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. Benefits are withheld until such time as the claimant obtains a full medical release to return to work, offers her services to the employer, and no suitable, comparable work is available considering reasonable accommodation; or if she is involuntarily separated before that time.
