APPEAL 22A-UI-08529-DS-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

PRESTAGE FOODS OF IOWA LLC
Employer

OC: 03/06/22
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.10 – Employer/Representative Participation Fact-finding Interview

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On April 5, 2022, Prestage Foods of Iowa LLC filed an appeal from the unemployment insurance decision dated March 30, 2022, Reference 01 that allowed unemployment insurance benefits and found that the claimant was dismissed from the employment, but not for disqualifying misconduct. Notice of hearing was mailed to the claimant's last known address of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 9:00 a.m. on May 17, 2022, at Des Moines, Iowa. The claimant did not participate. The employer participated through Loreen Yeager, Benefits and Compensation Specialist.

ISSUE:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the employment with good cause attributable to employer?

Has the claimant been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits, and if so, can the repayment of those benefits to the agency be waived?

Can charges to the employer's account be waived?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The claimant worked as a Rendering Operator for the employer from March 15, 2021 until May 13, 2022, when he was deemed by the employer to have voluntarily quit due to three consecutive days of unexcused absence from the employment in violation of the employer's attendance policy. Claimant was issued warnings for missing work on January 18, 2022, February 11, 2022, and February 25, 2022. Although the employer had issued the claimant a final warning for attendance on March 11, 2022, the employer had not terminated the claimant's employment as of the date of the original claim. Claimant continued to work for the employer until May 9, 2022. After failing to report for work or call the employer on May 10, 2022, May 11, 2022, and May 12, 2022, claimant was considered to have voluntarily quit the employment on May 13, 2022. The claimant has not been in contact with the employer since May 9, 2022.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

- (4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

The claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

Here, the claimant was employed through the date of filing the original claim, and furthermore until the week before the hearing, when he voluntarily quit the employment. The claimant did not appear for the hearing and has provided the department with no good cause for abandoning the employment.

An employer is entitled to expect its employees to report to work as scheduled or to be notified when and why the employee is unable to report to work. Inasmuch as the claimant failed to report for work or notify the employer for three consecutive workdays in violation of the employer policy, the claimant is considered to have voluntarily left employment without good cause attributable to the employer.

The remaining issues to be determined are whether the claimant has been overpaid benefits, whether the claimant must repay those benefits, and whether the employer's account will be charged. The claimant has not filed any weekly claims since his original claim date of March 6, 2022. The claimant has not received any unemployment insurance benefits since filing his claim, and therefore the issues of overpayment and employer participation in the fact-finding are moot. The claimant is not overpaid and the employer shall not be charged.

DECISION:

The March 30, 2022, Reference 01 unemployment insurance decision is REVERSED. Claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as he has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times his weekly benefit amount, provided he is otherwise eligible. The claimant has filed no weekly claims and therefore has not been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits.
