Section 96.5(7) – Vacation Pay

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Steven Jacobs, filed an appeal from a decision dated August 5, 2005, reference 01. The decision disqualified him from receiving unemployment benefits for the week ending July 16, 2005, due to the receipt of vacation pay. After due notice was issued a hearing was held by telephone conference call on August 24, 2005. The claimant participated on his own behalf. The employer, Lear, did not provide a telephone number where a representative could be contacted and did not participate.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony of the witness and having examined all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Steven Jacobs began employment with Lear on June 11, 1979, and is still employed as a full-time welder earning $15.66 per hour. He works 6:00 .a.m. until 2:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The claimant was laid off at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, July 5, 2005. At that time he received a check for the pay period from July 11 through 17, 2005, for a gross amount of $626.40. He filed a claim for unemployment benefits with an effective date of July 10, 2005, and did not report any wages or vacation pay for that week. He received $324.00 in unemployment benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Iowa Code section 96.5-7 provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits: ...

7. Vacation pay.

a. When an employer makes a payment or becomes obligated to make a payment to an individual for vacation pay, or for vacation pay allowance, or as pay in lieu of vacation, such payment or amount shall be deemed "wages" as defined in section 96.19, subsection 41, and shall be applied as provided in paragraph "c" hereof.

b. When, in connection with a separation or layoff of an individual, the individual's employer makes a payment or payments to the individual, or becomes obligated to make a payment to the individual as, or in the nature of, vacation pay, or vacation pay allowance, or as pay in lieu of vacation, and within ten calendar days after notification of the filing of the individual's claim, designates by notice in writing to the department the period to which the payment shall be allocated; provided, that if such designated period is extended by the employer, the individual may again similarly designate an extended period, by giving notice in writing to the department not later than the beginning of the extension of the period, with the same effect as if the period of extension were included in the original designation. The amount of a payment or obligation to make payment, is deemed "wages" as defined in section 96.19, subsection 41, and shall be applied as provided in paragraph "c" of this subsection 7.

c. Of the wages described in paragraph "a" (whether or not the employer has designated the period therein described), or of the wages described in paragraph "b", if the period therein described has been designated by the employer as therein provided, a sum equal to the wages of such individual for a normal workday shall be attributed to, or deemed to be payable to the individual with respect to, the first and each subsequent workday in such period until such amount so paid or owing is exhausted. Any individual receiving or entitled to receive wages as provided herein shall be ineligible for benefits for any week in which the sums, so designated or attributed to such normal workdays, equal or exceed the individual's weekly benefit amount. If the amount so designated or attributed as wages is less than the weekly benefit amount of such individual, the individual's benefits shall be reduced by such amount.

d. Notwithstanding contrary provisions in paragraphs "a", "b", and "c", if an individual is separated from employment and is scheduled to receive vacation payments during the period of unemployment attributable to the employer and if the employer does not designate the vacation period pursuant to paragraph "b", then payments made by the employer to the individual or an obligation to make a payment by the employer to the individual for vacation pay, vacation pay allowance or pay in lieu of vacation shall not be deemed wages as defined in section 96.19, subsection 41, for any period in excess of one week and such payments or the value of such obligations shall not be deducted for any period in excess of one week from the unemployment benefits the individual is otherwise entitled to receive under this chapter. However, if the employer designates more than one week as the vacation period pursuant to paragraph "b", the vacation pay, vacation pay allowance, or pay in lieu of vacation shall be considered wages and shall be deducted from benefits.

e. If an employer pays or is obligated to pay a bonus to an individual at the same time the employer pays or is obligated to pay vacation pay, a vacation pay allowance, or pay in lieu of vacation, the bonus shall not be deemed wages for purposes of determining benefit eligibility and amount, and the bonus shall not be deducted from unemployment benefits the individual is otherwise entitled to receive under this chapter.

The claimant received vacation pay attributable to the week ending July 16, 2005. He did not report this to Iowa Workforce Development when he filed his weekly claim. As a result he received benefits to which he was not entitled.

DECISION:

The representative's decision of August 5, 2005, reference 01, is affirmed. Steven Jacobs is not entitled to benefits for the week ending July 16, 2005, due to the receipt of vacation pay.
