ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 08/09/20
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Filing – Timely Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On October 15, 2021, Alexandria Curry (claimant/appellant) filed an appeal from the decision dated November 23, 2020 (reference 01) that disqualified claimant from unemployment insurance benefits based on a finding that she voluntarily quit employment on January 10, 2020 without a showing of good cause attributable to employer.

A telephone hearing was held on December 10, 2021. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. Claimant participated personally. Von Maur Inc (employer/respondent) participated by Store Manager Martha Deyoung-Mulder.

Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUE(S):

- I. Is the appeal timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The Unemployment Insurance Decision was mailed to claimant at the above address on November 23, 2020. That was the address of record for claimant but claimant was not living at that address at that time. Claimant did not update her address with the Department after moving. Claimant did not receive the decision for that reason. She was prompted to appeal when she received overpayment decisions approximately a year later.

The decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by Iowa Workforce Development Appeals Section by December 3, 2020. However, if the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. Claimant appealed the decision on October 15, 2021.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's appeal was untimely. The decision dated November 23, 2020 (reference 01) that disqualified claimant from unemployment insurance benefits based on a finding that she voluntarily quit employment on January 10, 2020 without a showing of good cause attributable to employer is therefore final and remains in force.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1)(a) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:
 - (a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark on the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.
 - (b)
 - (c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

There is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and the Administrative Law Judge has no authority to change the decision of representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dept. Job Service, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). The ten-day period for appealing an initial determination concerning a claim for benefits has been described as jurisdictional. Messina v. Iowa Dept. of Job Service, 341 N.W.2d 52, 55 (Iowa 1983); Beardslee v. Iowa Dept. Job Service, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979). The only basis for changing the ten-day period would be where notice to the appealing party was constitutionally invalid. E.g. Beardslee v. Iowa Dept. Job Service, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979). The question in such cases becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. Iowa Employment Sec. Commission, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. Iowa Employment Sec. Commission, 212 N.W.2d 471 (Iowa 1973). The question of whether the Claimant has been denied a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal is also informed by rule 871-24.35(2) which states that “the submission of any ...appeal...not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.”

The Unemployment Insurance Decision was mailed to claimant at the above address on November 23, 2020. That was the address of record for claimant but claimant was not living at that address at that time. Claimant did not update her address with the Department after moving. Claimant did not receive the decision for that reason. Claimant's failure to update her address with the Department is the reason for the delay in appealing. This is not a good cause reason for delay and the administrative law judge therefore concludes the appeal is not timely. Because the appeal is not timely, the decision has become final and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to change it.

DECISION:

The administrative law judge concludes the claimant's appeal was untimely. The decision dated November 23, 2020 (reference 01) that disqualified claimant from unemployment insurance benefits based on a finding that she voluntarily quit employment on January 10, 2020 without a showing of good cause attributable to employer is therefore final and remains in force.
