APPEAL 22A-UI-13054-SN-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

JELD-WEN INC
Employer

OC: 04/24/22
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) – Availability Disqualifications Same Hours and Wages
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer, Jeld-Wen Inc., filed an appeal from the May 18, 2022 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits with the conclusion that he was working on-call and could not be considered unemployed. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on July 12, 2022, at 8:00 a.m. The claimant did not participate. The employer participated through Human Resources Manager Fern Kidder. No exhibits were admitted. Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant is totally, partially or temporarily unemployed?
Whether claimant is able to and available for work?
Whether claimant is still employed at the same hours and wages?
Whether employer's account is subject to charge?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The claimant began employment with working for the employer as a full-time skilled operator on October 27, 2020. The claimant worked the third shift spanning from 10:30 p.m. to 6:30 a.m. Sunday night through Friday morning. He ordinarily worked in the exterior department. His hourly rate of pay was $21.81. The claimant's regular full-time schedule is 40 hours per week.

In late-March or early-April 2022, the employer experienced work shortages in the exterior department. The claimant was offered to work in the interior department at the same rate of pay. The work in the interior department is not markedly different than the work performed in the exterior department. The claimant rejected this work. He did not provide any justification to the employer for refusing to take the interior assignments. If the claimant had accepted this work, then he would not have had a reduction in hours.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant was not able and available for work effective April 24, 2022. Benefits are denied.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3)a provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. a. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

To receive benefits, the claimant must be able and available for work offered. The claimant rejected interior department work. He did not provide any explanation to the employer for why he refused this work. The claimant was not able and available for work effective April 24, 2022. Benefits are denied effective April 24, 2022.

DECISION:

The May 18, 2022 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The claimant was not able and available for work. Benefits are denied effective April 24, 2022.
