Section 96.5-7 – Vacation Pay

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed a timely appeal from the September 4, 2008, reference 03, decision that deducted vacation pay from his unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on September 24, 2008. The claimant did participate. The employer did participate through Kim Galrland, Human Resources Clerk. Department's Exhibit D-1 was received.

ISSUE:

Was the vacation pay deducted for the correct period?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the testimony and all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was separated on July 18, 2008. He filed a claim for benefits effective July 13, 2008. For the week ending July 19, the claimant earned only $24.20 in wages as he worked only 2.2 hours on July 14, 2008. The claimant received a check on July 19 for the gross amount of $380.60 which represented payment for the 2.2 hours he worked that week and payment for 32.4 hours of accumulated vacation at $11.00 per hour for a total of $380.60 gross. His net pay was $274.06. For the week ending July 19, 2008 the claimant reported to Iowa Workforce Development that he received a $355.00 in vacation and wages. The claimant reported his vacation pay for the week before the employer designated it. The claimant did not have sufficient wages during the week ending July 19, 2008 to disqualify him from receipt of unemployment insurance benefits.

The employer designated the vacation pay as covering from July 19, through July 23, 2008. For the week ending July 19 the claimant reported wages and vacation pay in the amount of $355.00. The claimant reported no wages or vacation pay for the week ending July 26, 2008. The claimant was paid $17.60 in vacation pay for the week ending July 26, 2008.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the vacation pay was deducted for the incorrect period.

Iowa Code section 96.5-7 provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits: ...

7. Vacation pay.

a. When an employer makes a payment or becomes obligated to make a payment to an individual for vacation pay, or for vacation pay allowance, or as pay in lieu of vacation, such payment or amount shall be deemed "wages" as defined in section 96.19, subsection 41, and shall be applied as provided in paragraph "c" hereof.

b. When, in connection with a separation or layoff of an individual, the individual's employer makes a payment or payments to the individual, or becomes obligated to make a payment to the individual as, or in the nature of, vacation pay, or vacation pay allowance, or as pay in lieu of vacation, and within ten calendar days after notification of the filing of the individual's claim, designates by notice in writing to the department the period to which the payment shall be allocated; provided, that if such designated period is extended by the employer, the individual may again similarly designate an extended period, by giving notice in writing to the department not later than the beginning of the extension of the period, with the same effect as if the period of extension were included in the original designation. The amount of a payment or obligation to make payment, is deemed "wages" as defined in section 96.19, subsection 41, and shall be applied as provided in paragraph "c" of this subsection 7.

c. Of the wages described in paragraph "a" (whether or not the employer has designated the period therein described), or of the wages described in paragraph "b", if the period therein described has been designated by the employer as therein provided, a sum equal to the wages of such individual for a normal workday shall be attributed to, or deemed to be payable to the individual with respect to, the first and each subsequent workday in such period until such amount so paid or owing is exhausted. Any individual receiving or entitled to receive wages as provided herein shall be ineligible for benefits for any week in which the sums, so designated or attributed to such normal workdays, equal or exceed the individual's weekly benefit amount. If the amount so designated or attributed as wages is less than the weekly benefit amount of such individual, the individual's benefits shall be reduced by such amount.

d. Notwithstanding contrary provisions in paragraphs "a", "b", and "c", if an individual is separated from employment and is scheduled to receive vacation payments during the period of unemployment attributable to the employer and if the employer does not designate the vacation period pursuant to paragraph "b", then payments made by the employer to the individual or an obligation to make a payment by the employer to the individual for vacation pay, vacation pay allowance or pay in lieu of vacation shall not be deemed wages as defined in section 96.19, subsection 41, for any period in excess of one week and such payments or the value of such obligations shall not be deducted for any period in excess of one week from the unemployment benefits the individual is otherwise entitled to receive under this chapter. However, if the employer designates more than one week as the vacation period pursuant to paragraph "b", the vacation pay, vacation pay allowance, or pay in lieu of vacation shall be considered wages and shall be deducted from benefits.

e. If an employer pays or is obligated to pay a bonus to an individual at the same time the employer pays or is obligated to pay vacation pay, a vacation pay allowance, or pay in lieu of vacation, the bonus shall not be deemed wages for purposes of determining benefit eligibility and amount, and the bonus shall not be deducted from unemployment benefits the individual is otherwise entitled to receive under this chapter.

871 IAC 24.16(3) provides:

(3) If the employer fails to properly notify the department within ten days after the notification of the filing of the claim that an amount of vacation pay, either paid or owed, is to be applied to a specific vacation period, the entire amount of the vacation pay shall be applied to the one-week period starting on the first workday following the last day worked as defined in subrule 24.16(4). However, if the individual does not claim benefits after layoff for the normal employer workweek immediately following the last day worked, then the entire amount of the vacation pay shall not be deducted from any week of benefits.

The claimant reported his vacation pay in the wrong week. He reported it for the week ending July 19 but the employer designated the vacation pay as through the week ending July 23, 2008. The claimant did properly report receipt of all of his vacation pay, but it appears the agency believed he was paid only wages for the week ending July 19. Thus, the vacation pay has been deducted for the incorrect period.

DECISION:

The September 4, 2008, reference 03, decision is reversed. The vacation pay was deducted for the incorrect period.
