CATHERINE FORKPA
Claimant

APPEAL 23A-UI-09129-ED-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

QPS EMPLOYMENT GROUP INC
Employer

OC: 9/3/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 96.5(1)J – Temporary Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The Claimant, Catherine Forkpa, filed an appeal from the September 19, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon her voluntary quit after failing to report to work for three consecutive days without notifying the employer. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on October 11, 2023. The Claimant, Catherine Forkpa, participated and testified. The employer, QPS Employment Group Inc, participated through witness, Jessica Segner. Employer's Exhibit A was received into evidence. Claimant's Exhibit 1 was received into evidence.

ISSUE:

Did Claimant voluntarily leave the employment with good cause attributable to the employer or did employer discharge the Claimant for reasons related to job misconduct sufficient to warrant a denial of benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed full time as a picker at Excel Marketing beginning June 5, 2023. This assignment ended on August 4, 2023. The Claimant was informed on August 7, 2023 that her assignment was completed. The Claimant did not contact the Employer until 7 days after notification of the completion of her work assignment to request additional work.

The Employer has a policy in place which requires employees to call and request further work within three working days of the completion of the assignment. If the employee does not, the written policy warns the employee that she may not qualify for unemployment benefits. The Claimant was provided with the policy at the time she was hired.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes Claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code §96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the Claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.5. However, the Claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the Claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code § 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(4) The Claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

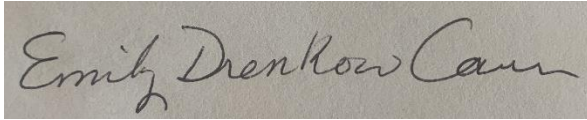

The decision in this case rests, at least in part, on the credibility of the witnesses. It is the duty of the administrative law judge as the trier of fact in this case, to determine the credibility of witnesses, weigh the evidence and decide the facts in issue. Arndt v. City of LeClaire, 728 N.W.2d 389, 394-395 (Iowa 2007). The administrative law judge may believe all, part or none of any witness's testimony. State v. Holtz, 548 N.W.2d 162, 163 (Iowa App. 1996). In assessing the credibility of witnesses, the administrative law judge should consider the evidence using his or her own observations, common sense and experience. Id. In determining the facts, and deciding what testimony to believe, the fact finder may consider the following factors: whether the testimony is reasonable and consistent with other believable evidence; whether a witness has made inconsistent statements; the witness's appearance, conduct, age, intelligence, memory and knowledge of the facts; and the witness's interest in the trial, their motive, candor, bias and prejudice. Id.

After assessing the credibility of the witnesses who testified during the hearing, reviewing the exhibits submitted by the parties, considering the applicable factors listed above, and using her own common sense and experience, the administrative law judge finds the Employer's version of events to be more credible than the Claimant's recollection of those events.

An employer is entitled to expect its employees to report to work as scheduled or to be notified when and why the employee is unable to report to work. Inasmuch as the Claimant failed to report for work or notify the employer for four consecutive workdays in violation of the employer policy, the Claimant is considered to have voluntarily left employment without good cause attributable to the employer.

DECISION:

The September 19, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. Claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as she is otherwise eligible.
