Iowa Code § 96.4(3) - Able and Available
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)e – Notice to Report
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(11) – Failure to Report

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed a timely appeal from the February 24, 2023, (reference 08) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits effective February 12, 2023, because of a failure to report as directed. After due notice was issued, a telephone conference hearing was held on March 17, 2023, and was consolidated with the hearing for appeals 23A-UI-02166-S2-T and 23A-UI-02167-S2-T. Claimant participated personally. Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Did the claimant fail to report as directed or offer a good cause reason for failure to do so?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony and having examined the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant received a notice from Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) to participate in a phone interview on February 16, 2023. The notice stated that failure to participate may result in denial of unemployment benefits. Claimant received the notice, but she believes it was misplaced by someone who lives in her home. She was not available at the time of the interview, so she did not participate. Claimant received the representative's voicemail, but she does not recall returning the representative's message.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant failed to report as directed without a good cause reason. Benefits are denied effective February 12, 2023.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)e provides:

e. In order to maintain continuing eligibility for benefits during any continuous period of unemployment, an individual shall report as directed to do so by an authorized representative of the department. If the individual has moved to another locality, the individual may register and report in person at a workforce development center at the time previously specified for the reporting.

(1) An individual who files a weekly continued claim will have the benefit payment automatically deposited weekly in the individual's account at a financial institution or on a selected debit card.

(2) In order for an individual to receive payment by direct deposit, the individual must provide the department with the appropriate bank routing code number and a checking or savings account number.

(3) The department retains the ultimate authority to choose the method of reporting and payment.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(11) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(11) Failure to report as directed to workforce development in response to the notice which was mailed to the claimant will result in the claimant being deemed not to meet the availability requirements.

Claimant received the notice to participate in the phone call, but the notice was misplaced. She was unavailable when the representative called her and failed to return the call. Claimant has not articulated a good-cause reason for failing to return the representative's call. Claimant is not able to or available for work effective February 12, 2023. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The February 24, 2023, (reference 08) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. Claimant failed to report and, thus, is unavailable for work. Benefits are denied effective February 12, 2023.
