APPEAL 22A-UI-18596-LJ-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 04/19/20
Claimant: Respondent (4)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On February 12, 2021, PDG Enterprises, L.L.C. (employer) filed an appeal from the statement of charges dated August 7, 2020, reference 00, for the second quarter of 2020. A hearing was held at 11:05 a.m. on Tuesday, November 15, 202, after the parties waived ten days' notice on a recorded line. Appeals 22A-UI-17614-LJ-T, 22A-UI-18596-LJ-T, and 22A-UI-18597-LJ-T were heard together and created one record. Claimant Elyse Mele participated. Employer PDG Enterprises LLC participated through designated representative Kathy Kessler and Peter Kessler. The Department's Exhibits D1, D2, D-3, D-4, and D-5 were admitted into the record.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?
Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant worked for the employer as a server and bartender. She separated from employment on September 20, 2019 and subsequently she filed a claim for benefits effective April 19, 2020. The notice of claim was mailed to the employer's address of record on April 21, 2020. (Exhibit D-1) The employer did not receive that notice of claim. Next, the Tax Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development ("IWD") sent out the August 7, 2020 statement of charges for the second quarter of 2020. (Exhibit D-4) Kathy Kessler recalled receiving that statement of charges. She made a telephone call to IWD and spoke to someone but did not ultimately appeal at the time.

Several months later, IWD sent the employer the November 9, 2020 statement of charges for the third quarter of 2020. (Exhibit D-5) Kessler has detailed notes on her copy of this statement of charges indicating she emailed the agency on November 25, 2020 and received a response via email on December 3, 2020. Kessler believed she had gotten her appeal on file through this correspondence by the appeal deadline of December 9, 2020.

Next, IWD sent the employer the February 9, 2021 statement of charges for the fourth quarter of 2020. (Exhibit D-2) When Kessler received this statement of charges, she immediately appealed via email. (Exhibit D-3) Due to agency error, this appeal was not properly docketed and scheduled for hearing at the time Kessler filed it in February 2021. Therefore, on September 29, 2022, Peter Kessler re-forwarded Kathy Kessler's message to inquire about the appeal and the status of the employer's account. The Administrative Hearings Division UI Appeals Bureau of the Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals promptly docketed the appeal and set the matter for hearing.

The administrative record shows that since separating from this employment and prior to opening her claim effective April 19, 2020, claimant earned more than ten times her $399.00 weekly benefit amount, or $3,990.00, with IRL Hospitality LLC.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did not file a timely appeal to this statement of charges and therefore this statement of charges must stand.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.
 - a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:
 - a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
 - b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
 - c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

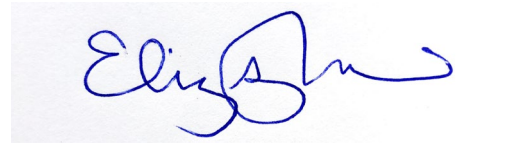

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

The employer received a statement of charges mailed August 9, 2020 showing that, after the change in employment status, the claimant was receiving benefits. While the administrative law judge is sympathetic to the extenuating factors facing this employer and all people at the time, given the pandemic, the employer had no documentation indicating it took any steps beyond making an inquiry phone call. That will not suffice. The employer did not file its appeal within 30 days of the first notification it had the claimant was receiving benefits following the change in employment status.

DECISION:

The August 7, 2020, reference 00, statement of charges for the second quarter of 2020 is affirmed. The employer did not file a timely appeal from that statement of charges.
