SECTION: 96.5-1-J

DECISION

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS ARE DENIED

The Claimant appealed this case to the Employment Appeal Board. Two members of the Employment Appeal Board reviewed the entire record. Those members are not in agreement. Monique F. Kuester would affirm and John A. Peno would reverse the decision of the administrative law judge.

Since there is not agreement, the decision of the administrative law judge is affirmed by operation of law. The Findings of Fact and Reasoning and Conclusions of Law of the administrative law judge are adopted by the Board and that decision is AFFIRMED by operation of law. See, 486 IAC 3.3(3).

Monique F. Kuester

DISSENTING OPINION OF JOHN A. PENO:

I respectfully dissent from the decision of the Employment Appeal Board; I would reverse the decision of the administrative law judge. The Claimant worked for the temporary employment agency for which the Employer via Mr. Leeser informed her that she was laid off. (Tr. 2) As such, I would conclude that the Employer was well aware that the Claimant's assignment had ended, and there was no need for any notification. In addition, the record contained no testimony as to whether the Employer had a notification document and whether it satisfied the statutory requirements set forth in Iowa Code section 96.5(1)"j", which provides in relevant part:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits: Voluntary Quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's Employer, if so found by the department.

j. The individual is a temporary employee of temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee. (Emphasis added.)

John A. Peno
