PL116-136, Sec. 2104(f)(2) – Overpayment of Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On September 20, 2021, Tanya Kollman (claimant/appellant) appealed the decision dated September 9, 2021 (reference 03) that concluded the claimant was overpaid Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation in the amount of $600.00 for the one-week period ending July 18, 2020, as a result of a decision denying benefits.

A telephone hearing was held on December 14, 2021, pursuant to due notice. Claimant participated personally. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Was the claimant overpaid Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The overpayment decision was issued due to claimant being found ineligible for benefits in a decision dated October 15, 2020. That decision has now been reversed. See 21A-UI-20964-AD-T.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons set forth below, the decision dated September 9, 2021 (reference 03) that concluded the claimant was overpaid Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation in the amount of $600.00 for the one-week period ending July 18, 2020, as a result of a decision denying benefits is REVERSED.

The overpayment decision was issued due to claimant being found ineligible for benefits in a decision dated October 15, 2020. That decision has now been reversed. See 21A-UI-20964-AD-

T. Because claimant has now been found eligible for benefits during that period she was not overpaid.

DECISION:

The decision dated September 9, 2021 (reference 03) that concluded the claimant was overpaid Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation in the amount of $600.00 for the one-week period ending July 18, 2020, as a result of a decision denying benefits is REVERSED. Claimant was not overpaid.
