ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 11/06/22
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the December 2, 2022 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits finding claimant was not able to and available for work effective November 6, 2022. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on January 4, 2023. Claimant participated. Employer participated through Sarah McGuire, District Manager. Claimant's Exhibits A and B were admitted.

ISSUE:

Whether claimant is able to and available for work.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant began his employment as a part-time Cashier with Brew Oil on October 17, 2022. Claimant last performed work for employer on October 30, 2022. Claimant suffered a heart attack between October 30, 2022 and filing his initial claim for unemployment benefits effective November 6, 2022. Claimant's heart attack was not work-related. Claimant sought medical treatment.

On November 9, 2022, a physician released claimant to return to light duty work restricting claimant to occasional walking or standing and occasional lifting of no more than ten pounds. (Exhibit B) On November 29, 2022, the physician stated that claimant could not return to work effective November 24, 2022 and continuing until further testing was completed. (Exhibit A) As of the date of the hearing, claimant has not been released to return to work without restrictions.

Claimant remains attached to employer and is on a medical leave of absence.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(35) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(35) Where the claimant is not able to work and is under the care of a medical practitioner and has not been released as being able to work.

An individual claiming benefits has the burden of proof that he is be able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22.

Inasmuch as claimant's medical condition was not work-related and the treating physician has not released claimant to return to work without restrictions, claimant has not established his ability to work while still an employee of Brew Oil effective November 6, 2022. While claimant may be able to perform light-duty work, employer is not obligated to accommodate a non-work-related medical condition or injury. Because claimant had not been released to perform his full work duties, claimant was not considered able to or available for work. Accordingly, he is not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits.

DECISION:

The December 2, 2022 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. Claimant is not able to or available for work effective November 6, 2022. Benefits are withheld until such time as the claimant obtains a full medical release to return to work unless he is involuntarily separated before that time.
