(Administrative Law Judge)

(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.6-2 – Timely Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Pleasant Park Estates, Inc. filed an appeal from an unemployment insurance decision dated November 18, 2005, reference 01, which allowed benefits to Debra J. Hynick. Due notice was issued for a telephone hearing to be held June 1, 2006. Although Ms. Hynick responded to the hearing notice, Pleasant Park Estates did not. Under the circumstances, it was unnecessary to take testimony from the claimant.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having examined all matters of record, the administrative law judge finds: The decision from which the employer has appealed states that it would become final unless an appeal was postmarked by November 28, 2005 or received by the Agency by that date. The employer filed its appeal on March 21, 2006.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The question is whether the administrative law judge has jurisdiction to rule on the merits of the case. He concludes that he does not.

Iowa Code section 96.6-2 gives a party ten days from the date of a fact-finding decision to file an appeal. The Supreme Court of Iowa has ruled that the time limit in that statute is jurisdictional. This means that in the absence of a timely appeal, the administrative law judge has no jurisdiction to rule on the merits of a case.

Applying these principles to the evidence in this record, the administrative law judge concludes that the employer has not filed its appeal within the times set by statute. Therefore, the administrative law judge has no authority to review the merits of the case.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated November 18, 2005, reference 01, has become final. The claimant is entitled to receive unemployment insurance benefits, provided she is otherwise eligible.
