APPEAL NO. 12A-UI-09502-LT

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

ADVANCE SERVICES INC

Employer

OC: 11/20/11

Claimant: Respondent (4)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j – Voluntary Quitting (Temporary Assignment)

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed an appeal from the August 6, 2012 (reference 03) decision that allowed benefits. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held by telephone conference call on August 29, 2012. Claimant participated. Employer participated through Unemployment Specialist Steve Volle.

ISSUE:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the employment with good cause attributable to employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed temporarily full-time as an assembler at Pella Corporation and was separated from employment on July 9, 2012. The assignment ended because of attendance issues. Office representative Sandy Ahman notified her and claimant asked for another assignment and worked for Syngenta on July 13 for two days until she left to work part-time (40 hours every two weeks, 8 days on and 8 days off) at Road Safe Traffic Systems on July 16, 2012 and became an employee on that date.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant voluntarily left the employment to accept employment elsewhere.

Iowa Code § 96.5-1-a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

a. The individual left employment in good faith for the sole purpose of accepting other or better employment, which the individual did accept, and the individual performed services in the new employment. Benefits relating to wage credits earned with the employer that the individual has left shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

871 IAC 24.28(5) provides:

Voluntary quit requalifications and previously adjudicated voluntary quit issues.

(5) The claimant shall be eligible for benefits even though the claimant voluntarily quit if the claimant left for the sole purpose of accepting an offer of other or better employment, which the claimant did accept, and from which the claimant is separated, before or after having started the new employment.

871 IAC 23.43(5) provides:

(5) Sole purpose. The claimant shall be eligible for benefits even though the claimant voluntarily quit if the claimant left for the sole purpose of accepting an offer of other or better employment, which the claimant did accept, and from which the claimant is separated, before or after having started the new employment. No charge shall accrue to the account of the former voluntarily quit employer.

Even though the separation was without good cause attributable to the employer and would, standing alone, disqualify the claimant from receiving benefits, the claimant did leave in order to accept other employment and did perform services for the subsequent employer. Accordingly, benefits are allowed and the account of the employer shall not be charged.

DECISION:

The August 6, 2012 (reference 03) decision is modified in favor of the appellant. The claimant voluntarily left his employment in order to accept other employment. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible. The account of the employer (account number 279311) shall not be charged.
