ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS DIVISION, UI APPEALS BUREAU

CHAZYRA C MILLER
Claimant

APPEAL 22A-UI-17638-S2-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

RANDSTAD PROFESSIONALS US, LP
Employer

OC: 08/21/22
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j – Voluntary Quitting – Temporary Employment
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.10 – Employer/Representative Participation Fact-finding Interview

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed an appeal from the September 23, 2022, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits based upon a finding that claimant notified employer when her temporary assignment ended and requested a new assignment within three working days of the completion. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on October 26, 2022. Claimant Chazyra C. Miller did not participate. Employer Randstad Professionals US, LP participated through senior account manager Karen Corona. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the employment with good cause attributable to employer?
Did the claimant voluntarily quit by not reporting for an additional work assignment within three business days of the end of the last assignment?
Has the claimant been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits, and if so, can the repayment of those benefits to the agency be waived?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm. Claimant began her employment on August 1, 2022. Prior to starting her first assignment, claimant completed paperwork with the employer, including signing the employer's availability statement.

Claimant received her job assignment from the employer to work full time at Wells Fargo. This job assignment began August 1, 2022, and ended on August 22, 2022. The reason the job assignment ended was because claimant was unable to work the hours required by the client and she needed different hours. On August 17, 2022, claimant contacted employer and requested a position with different hours at Wells Fargo. Employer informed claimant one was not available. On August 22, 2022, claimant notified employer the assignment ended. She asked for a new assignment that same day. Employer offered claimant a new position starting September 12, 2022, which claimant accepted.

The administrative record reflects that claimant has received unemployment benefits in the amount of $1,102.00 since filing a claim with an effective date of August 21, 2022, for the two weeks ending September 10, 2022. Employer participated in the fact-finding interview through witness Karen Corona.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code § 96.5(1)(j) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. (1) The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

(2) To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph:

(a) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their workforce during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(b) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(15) provides:

Voluntary quit with good cause attributable to the employer and separations not considered to be voluntary quits. The following are reasons for a claimant leaving employment with good cause attributable to the employer:

(15) Employee of temporary employment firm.

a. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm within three days of completion of an employment assignment and seeks reassignment under the contract of hire. The employee must be advised by the employer of the notification requirement in writing and receive a copy.

b. The individual shall be eligible for benefits under this subrule if the individual had good cause for not contacting the employer within three days and did notify the employer at the first reasonable opportunity.

c. Good cause is a substantial and justifiable reason, excuse or cause such that a reasonable and prudent person, who desired to remain in the ranks of the employed, would find to be adequate justification for not notifying the employer. Good cause would include the employer's going out of business; blinding snow storm; telephone lines down; employer closed for vacation; hospitalization of the claimant; and other substantial reasons.

d. Notification may be accomplished by going to the employer's place of business, telephoning the employer, faxing the employer or any other currently accepted means of communications. Working days means the normal days in which the employer is open for business.

On August 22, 2022, claimant's assignment at Wells Fargo ended; claimant requested a new job assignment that day. Accordingly, claimant is not disqualified. Benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

Because claimant is eligible for benefits, the issues of overpayment of regular unemployment insurance benefits and relief of charges are moot.

DECISION:

The September 23, 2022, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. Claimant's separation is not disqualifying. Benefits are allowed, provided she is otherwise eligible. The issues of overpayment of regular unemployment insurance benefits and relief of charges are moot.
