Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4-3 – Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated April 11, 2022 reference 03, which held claimant not able and available for work. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on May 25, 2022. Claimant participated personally.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant is able and available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant was dismissed from work on February 18, 2022. After her dismissal, and after filing for unemployment benefits, claimant contracted an illness and was unable to work or to apply for work for a number of weeks. Claimant fell ill on or around March 27, 2022, and remained ill until a date at or around April 17, 2022. Claimant did file for unemployment benefits for the first week that she was ill and not able to work, but did not apply for benefits the other two weeks.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1)a provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

Inasmuch as the claimant has not shown the ability to work in any capacity for the period between March 27, 2022 and April 2, 2022 while she applied for unemployment benefits, she has not established the ability to work for that week. Benefits shall be withheld for the period between March 27, 2022 and April 2, 2022.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated April 11, 2022, reference 03 is affirmed. Claimant is not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits for the period between March 27, 2022 and April 2, 2022.
