(Administrative Law Judge)

(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.5-1 - Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Victor Mendoza Jr., filed an appeal from a decision dated November 15, 2004, reference 01. The decision disqualified him from receiving unemployment benefits as he had quit work without good cause attributable to the employer. After due notice was issued a hearing was held by telephone conference call on December 21, 2004. The claimant participated on his own behalf. The employer, Team Staffing Solutions, Inc., participated by Human Resources Manager Michael Black.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony of the witnesses and having examined all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Victor Mendoza was employed by Team Staffing from September 10, 2003 until October 22, 2004. His last assignment began July 20, 2004 at All Steel, and ended on October 22, 2004. He was then laid off for lack of work.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue is whether the claimant is disqualified. The judge concludes he is not.

Iowa Code Section 96.5-2-a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

2. Discharge for misconduct. If the department finds that the individual has been discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment:

a. The individual shall be disqualified for benefits until the individual has worked in and has been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

871 IAC 24.32(1)a provides:

Discharge for misconduct.

(1) Definition.

a. "Misconduct" is defined as a deliberate act or omission by a worker which constitutes a material breach of the duties and obligations arising out of such worker's contract of employment. Misconduct as the term is used in the disqualification provision as being limited to conduct evincing such willful or wanton disregard of an employer's interest as is found in deliberate violation or disregard of standards of behavior which the employer has the right to expect of employees, or in carelessness or negligence of such degree of recurrence as to manifest equal culpability, wrongful intent or evil design, or to show an intentional and substantial disregard of the employer's interests or of the employee's duties and obligations to the employer. On the other hand mere inefficiency, unsatisfactory conduct, failure in good performance as the result of inability or incapacity, inadvertencies or ordinary negligence in isolated instances, or good faith errors in judgment or discretion are not to be deemed misconduct within the meaning of the statute.

This definition has been accepted by the Iowa Supreme Court as accurately reflecting the intent of the legislature. Huntoon v. Iowa Department of Job Service, 275 N.W.2d 445, 448 (Iowa 1979).

The claimant was laid off for lack of work. His last assignment ended and no work was available. This is not a disqualifying separation and benefit are allowed.

DECISION:

The representative's decision of November 15, 2004, reference 01, is reversed. Victor Mendoza is qualified for benefits provided he is otherwise eligible.
