DAN ANDERSON, IWD

(Administrative Law Judge)

May 4, 2009

(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.4-3 - Able and Available
Section 96.5-8 - Administrative Penalty
871 IAC 25.9(2) - Penalties

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from an Iowa Workforce Development Department decision dated April 8, 2009, reference 01, which disqualified the claimant from receiving benefits for a period from April 5, 2009 to May 30, 2009, due to a prior overpayment based on misrepresentation.

The hearing was scheduled pursuant to due notice for May 4, 2009, by telephone conference call. The claimant did not participate. No Investigator participated on behalf of Iowa Workforce Development, Investigation and Recovery. Official Notice was taken of the Administrative file.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony of the witnesses, and having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: The claimant was the subject of an audit and investigation on his claim for benefits effective April 15, 2007. A representative of Iowa Workforce Development issued a decision that the claimant was over paid benefits $2,050.45 due to misrepresentation on December 18, 2007. The decision was not appealed, and it has now become final.

When the claimant filed his most recent claim effective March 8, 2009, a department representative notified Investigator Carnahan. Carnahan contacted the claimant prior to imposing any penalty. Carnahan recorded a telephone statement from the claimant on April 7, 2009 about the overpayment, and he stated "I needed the money and I was just being stupid".

The claimant incurred the overpayment by failing to report wages while claiming benefits for nine weeks during a period from April 29, 2007 to July 21, 2007. The department imposed a minimum penalty given its Administrative penalty guidelines that state it could range up to the remainder of the benefit year for nine or more weeks of unreported wages.

The claimant and the department did not respond to the hearing notice.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The first issue is whether the claimant is able and available for work.

Iowa Code Section 96.4-3 provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work.

The further issue is whether the administrative penalty imposed is correct.

Iowa Code Section 96.5-8 provides:

8. Administrative Penalty. If the department finds that, with respect to any week of an insured worker's unemployment for which such person claims credit or benefits, such person has, within the thirty-six calendar months immediately preceding such week, with intent to defraud by obtaining benefits not due under this chapter, willfully and knowingly failed to disclose a material fact; such person shall be disqualified for the week in which the department makes such determination, and forfeit all benefit rights under the unemployment compensation law for a period of not more than the remaining benefit period as determined by the department according to the circumstances of each case. Any penalties imposed by this subsection shall be in addition to those otherwise prescribed in this chapter.

871 IAC 25.9(2) provides:

- b. The general guide for disqualifications for deliberate falsification for the purpose of obtaining or increasing unemployment insurance benefits is listed below. It is intended to be used as a guide only and is not a substitute for the personal subjective judgment of the investigator because each case must be decided on its own merits. The administrative penalty recommended for falsification ranges from three weeks through the end of the benefit year.

The administrative law judge concludes that the administrative penalty imposed by the department is correct pursuant to Iowa Code Section 96.4-3 and Iowa Code Section 96.5-8. The claimant was the subject of an overpayment decision due to misrepresentation within the time period established by the law, which was not appealed, and it has now become final. The eight-week period of disqualification imposed by the department is within the administrative penalty discretion of the law.

The department imposed a minimum penalty given its guidelines, and the claimant failed to off any mitigating information to try and reduce it.

DECISION:

The decision of Iowa Workforce Development dated April 8, 2009, reference 01, is AFFIRMED. The claimant is disqualified from receiving benefits for the 8-week period ending May 30, 2009.
