ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS DIVISION, UI APPEALS BUREAU

JADE S. BENDER

CASEY'S MARKETING COMPANY
Employer

APPEAL 22A-UI-19629-CS-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 08/07/22
Claimant: Respondent (4)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On December 8, 2022, Casey's Marketing Company (employer) filed an appeal from the statement of charges dated November 9, 2022, reference 03, for the third quarter of 2022. A hearing was held on January 11, 2022, pursuant to due notice. Jade S. Bender (claimant) did not participate. The employer participated through third party administrator, Marideliz Ortiz. The department's Exhibits D1 through D5 were admitted into the record. Administrative notice was taken of claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUES:

- I. Was the employer's protest timely?
- II. Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant separated from employment on July 17, 2022 and filed a claim for benefits effective August 7, 2022. The notice of claim was sent through the SIDES system to the employer on August 12, 2022. (Exhibit D-1). The employer protested the claim on August 23, 2022. (Exhibit D-1). An unemployment insurance decision was issued on September 13, 2022 (reference 01) that denied claimant benefits. (Exhibit D-2) The first notice the employer received that they were being charged for benefits was the receipt of the statement of charges mailed November 9, 2022 for the third quarter of 2022. (Exhibit D-4). The employer filed its appeal of that statement of charges on December 8, 2022. (Exhibit D-5).

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes that the employer has filed a timely appeal from the third quarter of 2022 Statement of Charges.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:

- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,

c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

The administrative law judge concludes that the employer filed its appeal of the third quarter of 2022 Statement of Charges within the time period prescribed by Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6). The Statement of Charges was the first time that the employer was notified that it would be charged for benefits paid to claimant. The agency's previous decision dated September 13, 2022 (reference 01) found that the claimant was denied benefits. The employer's appeal of the third quarter of 2022 Statement of Charges within thirty days is timely. The Statement of Charges is inconsistent with the agency's previous decision. The account of the employer shall not be charged.

DECISION:

The Statement of Charges dated November 9, 2022 for the third quarter of 2022 is modified in favor of appellant. The employer has filed a timely appeal from that Statement of Charges. A decision has been issued that finds claimant is not entitled to unemployment insurance benefits. The account of the employer shall not be charged $664.20 for the claimant in the third quarter of 2022.
