ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 12/10/17
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.6(1) – Filing Claims
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)g – Retroactive Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the December 27, 2017, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision that denied the request for retroactive benefits. After due notice was issued, a telephone conference hearing was scheduled for January 30, 2018. Claimant participated.

ISSUE:

Should the claimant's request for retroactive benefits be granted for the two-week period ending December 23, 2017?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony and having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant filed an original claim effective December 10, 2017, with a reopened claim on December 24, 2017. He did not file a continued claim by online web application for the one-week period ending December 16, 2017, because he was confused with the online system indicating the claim was filed and not understanding that he also must file a weekly claim. On December 22, 2017, claimant attempted to file his continued weekly claim, but was locked out of the system. Claimant called Iowa Workforce Development for assistance on the first possible day after this, which was December 26, 2017. It was explained to claimant that his claim had been closed and would have to be reopened. The IWD associate assisted claimant in doing this and provided filing instructions going forward.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's request for retroactive benefits is granted.

Iowa Code section 96.6(1) provides:

1. Filing. Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the department may prescribe.

In order to be eligible for weekly benefits, the claimant must file an online web application continued claim or show good cause for the failure to do so to support a request for retroactive benefits. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)g.

What parties often misunderstand about the process is that during the week in which the unemployment occurs, the claimant should open an umbrella-like “original claim” (OC) by the close of business on Friday to establish the general claim for unemployment insurance benefits. In addition, for each week the claimant remains unemployed, they must file a “weekly continued claim” (WCC) to show they are available for work, report any wages, and otherwise establish eligibility for that past week of benefit payment. That must be done sometime between Sunday and Friday of the following week (see chart below). If a claimant does not file a WCC for one week for any reason and becomes unemployed again, the process must start over by reopening the OC no later than Friday, and filing weekly continued claim sometime between the following Sunday through Friday. No filing of any kind may be done on any Saturday.

On October 1, 2017, a letter about weekly claim filing change information was sent to all claimants, whether the claim was active or not:

Weekly Claim Filing Changes

Beginning with the week ending October 7, 2017, the first day of the week you can report a weekly claim is the Sunday starting at 8 a.m. after the prior week has ended. This means after October 7, 2017, you can no longer file weekly claims on Saturday of any week.

In addition, after October 7, 2017, weekly claims must be filed Sunday through Friday for the prior week only. This means you have six days to file the previous week’s claim. See the chart below for the days available to file your weekly claim. Delay in filing your weekly claim could result in denial of benefits.

You are encouraged to start following the new claims filing process now so that you are used to the new schedule when the changes happen in October. For your convenience, you can file your weekly claim online using a mobile device or computer at www.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov.

The September 2017, version of the Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook, provides in pertinent part at pages 13 and 14:

Claim Effective Date

The effective date of all UI claims, regardless of filing method, will be the Sunday of the week in which the application was filed. The effective date of a claim will not be changed for applications that were not filed in a timely manner.

Reactivating a Claim

An individual can start and stop claiming weekly benefits as many times as necessary during the benefit year. This is called a break in reporting status. Any break in reporting requires the individual to file another initial claim application during the week he/she wants to start collecting benefits again. Any employment during the break must be reported.

The September 2017, version of the Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook, provides in pertinent part at pages 19 and 20:

Filing Weekly Claims

How to File

After you file your initial claim, file weekly claims online at iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov for every week you are unemployed or your hours are reduced. You must file a weekly claim for any week that you want payment even if your eligibility is being decided or you have an appeal pending.

To request UI benefit payments during weeks of unemployment, individuals must certify they:

- Are currently unemployed or working reduced hours
- Are able to work and available for work
- Have not refused any job offers or referrals to a job
- Are actively looking for work (unless waived)
- Are reporting any pay or pension payment

When to File

The current week is the week that just ended on Saturday. Weekly claims must be filed 8 am Sunday through 5:30 pm Friday for the prior week only. This means individuals have six days to file the previous week's claim. See the chart above for the days available to file. Weekly claims can be filed online using a mobile device or computer at <https://uiclaims.iwd.iowa.gov/weeklyclaims/>.

Delay in filing your weekly claim could result in denial of benefits.

IMPORTANT: You will receive confirmation that the claim has been processed successfully. If you don't receive confirmation, the process must be repeated until the claim has been successfully submitted.

Elsewhere in the September 2017, version of the handbook at page 8, contact information includes days and hours for filing a claim and weekly claim reporting:

File a Claim

Hours: Sunday through Friday, 8:00 am to 4:30 pm
www.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov
<https://uicclaims.iwd.iowa.gov/UIInitialClaim/>

Weekly Claim Reporting

Hours: Sunday 8:00 am – 11:30 pm and Monday through Friday 8:00 am through 5:30 pm
<https://uicclaims.iwd.iowa.gov/weeklyclaims/>

Here, the claimant did not file his weekly claim for the week ending December 16, 2017 because he was confused on the difference between filing an initial claim and weekly continued claim. Note that the instruction to file weekly continued claims appears four pages later in the Handbook than the initial and reactivation claim filing instructions, after information about the fact-finding interview and appeal process. This chronology is reasonably confusing. Since the term “claim” is used for both the benefit year claim and the weekly claim, claimant’s confusion is reasonable. Claimant then attempted, on December 22, 2017, to file his weekly continued claim, but was locked out of the system until he reopened his claim on December 26, 2017. At that time it was too late to file his weekly continued claim for the week ending December 23, 2017. Claimant has provided good cause reason for failing to file his continued weekly claim for the two-week period ending December 23, 2017. Retroactive benefits are for the two-week period ending December 23, 2017, provided he is otherwise eligible.

Claimant is urged to review information in the Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook at: https://www.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov/sites/search.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov/files/documents/ClaimantHandbook\_2017-18.pdf

DECISION:

The December 27, 2017, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant’s request for retroactive benefits is granted.
