Iowa Code Section 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On April 13, 2023, the employer filed a timely appeal from the April 7, 2023 (reference 01) decision that allowed benefits to the claimant, provided the claimant was otherwise eligible, and that held the employer's account could be charged for benefits, based on the deputy's conclusion the claimant voluntarily quit on June 15, 2022 with good cause attributable to the employer and due to detrimental working conditions. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on April 27, 2023. Jamie Mease (claimant) did not comply with the hearing notice instructions to call the designated toll-free number at the time of the hearing and did not participate. Pennie Ritter, Human Resources Specialist, represented the employer. The administrative law judge took official notice of the following Agency administrative records: DBRO and WAGE-A.

ISSUE:

Whether the claimant voluntarily quit without good cause attributable to the employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Jamie Mease (claimant) was employed by ABC Supply Company, Inc. as a full-time delivery driver at the employer's Cedar Rapids branch from December 2021 until June 22, 2022, when he voluntarily quit. John Yelden, Branch Manager, was the claimant's supervisor. On June 9, 2022, the claimant gave verbal notice to the employer that he was quitting the employment and that his last day would be June 24, 2022. The claimant told the employer he was leaving because he had accepted other employment. On June 22, 2022, the claimant moved up his effective quit date to June 22, 2022 and voluntarily separated from the employment. The employer had work going for the claimant.

Iowa Workforce Development records reflect that no employer has reported wages for the claimant since the claimant separated from this employer.

IWD records reflect that no benefits have been paid to the claimant in connection with the claim that was effective March 19, 2023. ABC Supply Company, Inc. has not been charged for benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5(1)(a) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

a. The individual left employment in good faith for the sole purpose of accepting other or better employment, which the individual did accept, and the individual performed services in the new employment. Benefits relating to wage credits earned with the employer that the individual has left shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

In general, a voluntary quit requires evidence of an intention to sever the employment relationship and an overt act carrying out that intention. See Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 698, 612 (Iowa 1980) and Peck v. EAB, 492 N.W.2d 438 (Iowa App. 1992). In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer. See 871 IAC 24.25.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.28(5) provides:

Voluntary quit requalifications and previously adjudicated voluntary quit issues.

(5) The claimant shall be eligible for benefits even though the claimant voluntarily quit if the claimant left for the sole purpose of accepting an offer of other or better employment, which the claimant did accept, and from which the claimant is separated, before or after having started the new employment. The employment does not have to be covered employment and does not include self-employment.

Quits due to intolerable or detrimental working conditions are deemed to be for good cause attributable to the employer. See Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(4). The test is whether a reasonable person would have quit under the circumstances. See Aalbers v. Iowa Department of Job Service, 431 N.W.2d 330 (Iowa 1988) and O'Brien v. Employment Appeal Bd., 494 N.W.2d 660 (1993). Aside from quits based on medical reasons, prior notification of the employer before a resignation for intolerable or detrimental working conditions is not required. See Hy-Vee v. EAB, 710 N.W.2d (Iowa 2005).

The evidence in the record establishes a June 22, 2022 voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer. The claimant did not participate in the appeal hearing and did not present any evidence to establish a quit for intolerable and/or detrimental working conditions or for any other good cause attributable to the employer. The evidence in the records fails to support the notion that the claimant quit for the sole purpose of accepting other employment.

The claimant is disqualified for benefits until the claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to 10 times the claimant's weekly benefit amount. The claimant must meet all other eligibility requirements. The employer's account shall not be charged for benefits.

Because the claimant has not received benefits in connection with the claim, there is not an overpayment to address.

DECISION:

The April 7, 2023 (reference 01) decision is REVERSED. The claimant voluntarily quit the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. The quit was effective June 22, 2022. The claimant is disqualified for benefits until the claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to 10 times the claimant's weekly benefit amount. The claimant must meet all other eligibility requirements. The employer's account shall not be charged.
