Iowa Code § 96.6(2) - Timeliness of Appeal
PL 116-136, Sec. 2104 - Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

May 3, 2022, Samuel Webb, Jr., claimant/appellant, filed an appeal from the April 12, 2022, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision finding claimant was overpaid $2,100.00 in FPUC benefits for seven weeks from 12/27/20 through 03/13/21 due to being eligible for benefits in South Dakota. After proper notice, a telephone hearing was conducted on June 21, 2022, at 11:10AM. The following hearings were held together as part of a consolidated hearing: Appeals 22A-UI-11687-DH-T; 22A-UI-11688-DH-T; and 22A-UI-11689-DH-T. Claimant participated personally. The Department did not participate. Judicial notice was taken of the administrative record and KPYX.

ISSUE:

Is the appeal timely?
Is claimant overpaid FPUC benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony and reviewed the evidence in the record, the undersigned finds:

The unemployment insurance decision dated the April 7, 2021, (reference 01) that denied claimant PEUC benefits as of 11/22/20 was kept in effect in companion appeal 22A-UI-11687-DH-T as the appeal was untimely.

Claimant filed a new claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of March 15, 2020. Claimant received FPUC benefits from 12/27/20 through 03/13/21 in the amount of $2,100.00.

The appeal is from a decision dated April 12, 2022. It lists an appeal deadline of April 22, 2022. Claimant received the decision on April 29, 2022 and submitted his appeal on May 3, 2022, four days after receiving the appeal.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The first issue to be considered in this appeal is whether the appellant's appeal is timely. The administrative law judge finds the appeal is timely.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsections 10 and 11, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The ten calendar days for appeal begins running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973). The record shows that the appellant did not receive the decision within ten days of the mailing date and was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. After receiving the decision on 04/29/22 he took four days to file his appeal, and therefore the appeal is deemed timely filed.

PL116-136, Sec. 2104 provides, in pertinent part:

(b) Provisions of Agreement

(1) Federal pandemic unemployment compensation.--Any agreement under this section shall provide that the State agency of the State will make payments of regular compensation to individuals in amounts and to the extent that they would be determined if the State law of the State were applied, with respect to any week for which the individual is (disregarding this section) otherwise entitled under the State law to receive regular compensation, as if such State law had been modified in a manner such that the amount of regular compensation (including dependents' allowances) payable for any week shall be equal to

(A) the amount determined under the State law (before the application of this paragraph), plus

(B) an additional amount of $600 (in this section referred to as "Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation").

(f) Fraud and Overpayments

(2) Repayment.--In the case of individuals who have received amounts of Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to which they were not entitled, the State shall require such individuals to repay the amounts of such Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to the State agency...

Here, claimant has already been disqualified from receiving PEUC, as detailed above. Accordingly, this also disqualifies claimant from receiving FPUC. The claimant was overpaid $2,100.00 in FPUC benefits.

DECISION:

The April 12, 2022, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. Claimant was overpaid $2,100.00 in FPUC benefits, which must be repaid.
