APPEAL 22A-UI-17352-AW-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE
DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 03/29/20

Claimant: Appellant (4R)

PL 116-136, Sec. 2104(f) – Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation Waiver

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the September 6, 2022 decision that denied claimant's application to waive repayment of a Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) overpayment. Claimant was properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on October 19, 2022. Claimant participated and was represented by attorney Frederic Hayer. lowa Workforce Development (IWD) did not participate. No exhibits were admitted. Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Whether repayment of claimant's FPUC overpayment should be waived.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant filed an original claim for regular unemployment insurance be nefits effective March 29, 2020. Claimant was paid FPUC benefits in the gross amount of $7,800.00 for the 13-week period between March 29, 2020 and June 27, 2020 based upon their eligibility for unemployment insurance (UI) benefits.

On July 6, 2020, IWD issued a decision (reference 01) denying claimant UI benefits because she voluntarily quit her employment with Vibrant for personal reasons. The denial was upheld on appeal. On May 25, 2021, IWD issued a decision (reference 03) finding claimant was overpaid FPUC in the gross amount of $7,800.00 for the 13-week period ending June 20, 2020. Claimant did not appeal the FPUC overpayment decision. Claimant applied for a waiver of the overpayment of FPUC.

Claimant received benefits because IWD chose to release benefits to claimants before making initial determinations regarding eligibility. Claimant provided all information she believed IWD needed to make its decision. Claimant was honest in her application for benefits and had no reason to believe that she was not entitled to them. Claimant applied for benefits in good faith and continued filing weekly claims upon the advice and at the direction of IWD.

Claimant's currently monthly expenses exceed her monthly income. Claimant does not have money saved with which to repay the overpayment. Repayment would cause claimant a significant financial hardship.

On September 6, 2022, IWD issued a decision denying claimant's request to waive repayment of her FPUC overpayment. IWD used benefits owed to claimant to offset her FPUC overpayment. Claimant current FPUC overpayment balance is $6,745.00.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

PL 116-136 Section 2104 of the CARES Act created a program in which an additional $600.00 per week was payable to claimants who were eligible for at least $1.00 per week in benefits stemming from other programs including regular unemployment insurance funded by the State of lowa, Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation, Pandemic Unemployment Assistance, lowa Extended benefits, and Trade Act benefits. This initial program ran from March 29, 2020 through July 25, 2020. Claimants were only eligible to receive FPUC payments if they were entitled to receive benefits from another applicable program. The payments of FPUC benefits were automatic so long as a claimant was determined to be eligible under one of the other applicable programs.

The CARES Act provides that a State agency may waive repayment of an overpayment in certain circumstances.

PL 116-136, Sec. 2104(f)2 provides:

EMERGENCY INCREASE IN UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION BENEFITS.

- (f) Fraud and Overpayments. -
 - (1) In general. If an individual knowingly has made, or caused to be made by another, a false statement or representation of a material fact, or knowingly has failed, or caused another to fail, to disclose a material fact, and as a result of such false statement or representation or of such nondisclosure such individual has received an amount of Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to which such individual was not entitled, such individual
 - (A) Shall be ineligible for further Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation in accordance with the provisions of the applicable State unemployment compensation law relating to fraud in connection with a claim for unemployment compensation; and
 - (B) Shall be subject to prosecution under section 1001 of title 18, United States Code.
 - (2) Repayment In the case of individuals who have received amounts of Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to which they were not entitled, the State shall require such individuals to repay the amount of such Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to the State agency, except that the State agency may waive such repayment if it determines that
 - (A) the payment of such Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation was without fault on the part of any such individual and:
 - (B) such repayment would be contrary to equity and good conscience.

In determining whether the payment of FPUC benefits was without fault on the part of the claimant, several factors must be considered. Those factors include whether a material statement or representation was made by the claimant in connection with the application for benefits and whether the claimant knew or should have known that the statement was inaccurate; whether the claimant failed or caused another to fail to disclose a material fact in connection with the application for benefits that resulted in the overpayment and whether the claimant knew or should have known that the fact was material; whether the claimant knew or could have been expected to know that they were not entitled to the compensation payment; and whether the overpayment resulted directly or indirectly, and partially or totally, from any act or omission of the claimant or of which the claimant had knowledge and which was erroneous or inaccurate or otherwise wrong. Cf. lowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.50(7)(factors for waiver of temporary extended unemployment compensation).

In deciding whether repayment would be contrary to equity and good conscience, several factors must be considered. Those factors include whether repayment would cause financial hardship to the claimant; or, that the claimant (regardless of financial circumstances) can establish that they have relinquished a valuable right or changed positions for the worse; or, recovery would be unconscionable under the circumstances. See UIPL No. 20-21(4)d. Other factors include whether the overpayment was the result of a decision on appeal; whether the state agency had given notice to the claimant that they may be required to repay the overpayment in the event of a reversal of the eligibility determination on appeal; and whether recovery of the overpayment will cause financial hardship to the claimant. Cf. lowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.50(7)(factors for waiver of temporary extended unemployment compensation).

Claimant was paid FPUC benefits before IWD determined she was ineligible for UI benefits. Claimant made no material misstatements or misrepresentations when filing for benefits. Claimant did not know or should not have known that she would be denied UI benefits at a later date. The overpayment was not a direct result of any knowing actions or omissions of the claimant. As such, the payment of FPUC benefits was without fault on the part of the claimant. Further, based upon claimant's financial circumstances, repayment of the overpayment would cause claimant a financial hardship.

Accordingly, claimant's repayment of the FPUC overpayment in the amount of $7,800.00 shall be waived; claimant has no obligation to repay those FPUC benefits received.

DECISION:

The September 6, 2022 decision is MODIFIED IN FAVOR OF APPELLANT. Claimant's FPUC overpayment in the amount of $7,800.00 is waived. The claimant is not obligated to pay back the FPUC benefits received.

REMAND:

This matter is remanded to the Benefits Bureau of IWD for release of any benefits that were owed to claimant but withheld to offset the FPUC overpayment.
