871 IAC 26.8(1) – Dismissal of an Appeal Number Set Up in Error

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On September 12, 2014 a decision, 14R-UI-06665, was issued that addressed the Employment Appeal Board's remand in this matter. See the Employment Appeal Board's decision for 14B-UI-03375. On September 16, 2014 the claimant contacted the Appeals Bureau to ask why his claim was locked. Even though the Appeals Bureau docketing system reflected a decision had been issued for 14R-UI-06665, the lead worker who handled this matter must not have read the decision and instead incorrectly assumed a hearing had not been held on the Employment Appeal Board's remand. The author of 14R-UI-06665 was not contacted.

As the result of incorrect assumptions, Appeal 14O-UI-09531 was entered and scheduled for a hearing on October 6. When the author of 14R-UI-06665 saw that this case had again been scheduled, the attorneys were contacted and were told a mistake had been made and there was no hearing on October 6, 2014. The decision for 14R-UI-06665 has been appealed to the Employment Appeal Board.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The Appeals Bureau made a mistake in setting up an appeal and scheduling a hearing for the appeal designated as 14O-UI-09531. For purposes of showing this appeal number has been resolved, this decision has been written that dismisses this matter.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Pursuant to 871 IAC 26.8(1), this appeal is dismissed.

DECISION:

This appeal, 14O-UI-09531, was set up in error. The decision for Appeal 14R-UI-06665 addressed the issue the Employment Appeal Board's remand in 14B-UI-03375. This Appeal 14O-UI-09531, is dismissed.
