Claimant: Appellant (2)

Section 96.5 – Separation from Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed a timely appeal from an unemployment insurance decision dated June 3, 2011, reference 01, that disqualified her for benefits. Before a final hearing could be scheduled, the agency issued a decision on July 27, 2011 allowing benefits to the claimant and stating that the earlier decision was declared null and void. Under these circumstances, a formal hearing is not required.

ISSUE:

Was the claimant's separation from employment a disqualifying event?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The agency has issued a decision dated July 27, 2011 allowing benefits to the claimant and stating that the prior disqualifying decision was issued in error.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The question is whether the claimant's separation from employment was a disqualifying event. According to the agency's subsequent decision, it was not.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated June 3, 2011, reference 01, is reversed. The claimant is entitled to receive unemployment insurance benefits, provided she is otherwise eligible.
