APPEAL 23A-UI-11410-DB-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 11/19/23
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to Work, Available for Work and Actively Seeking Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(3) – Work Search Warning

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the December 5, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance benefits decision that found the claimant was warned for failing to engage in at least four reemployment activities during the week-ending December 2, 2023. Due notice was issued and a telephone hearing was held on December 22, 2023. The claimant participated personally. The administrative law judge took official notice of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUE:

Was the warning appropriate?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant filed an initial claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of November 19, 2023. During the week-ending December 2, 2023, the claimant submitted more than four job applications to employers including jobs at Isolved; Go Health Urgent Care; Dakota Software Corp.; and Susan G. Komen Foundation for full-time positions. He took the steps out of order on the Iowa Workforce Development system, and the certification was not done correctly. He filed his weekly-continued claim for that week and it showed that he did not have any job contacts, when he actually did. Claimant was able to and available for work for the week-ending December 2, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes as follows:

Iowa Code section 96.4(3)a provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. a. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(3) provides:

Benefit eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(3) Earnestly and actively seeking work. Mere registration at a workforce development center does not establish that the individual is earnestly and actively seeking work. It is essential that the individual personally and diligently search for work. It is difficult to establish definite criteria for defining the words earnestly and actively. Much depends on the estimate of the employment opportunities in the area. The number of employer contacts which might be appropriate in an area of limited opportunity might be totally unacceptable in other areas. When employment opportunities are high, an individual may be expected to make more than the usual number of contacts. Unreasonable limitations by an individual as to salary, hours, or conditions of work can indicate that the individual is not earnestly seeking work. The department expects each individual claiming benefits to conduct themselves as would any normal, prudent individual who is out of work.

a. Basic requirements. An individual shall be ineligible for benefits for any period for which the department finds that the individual has failed to make an earnest and active search for work. The circumstances in each case are considered in determining whether an earnest and active search for work has been made. Subject to the foregoing, applicable actions of the following kind are considered an earnest and active search for work if found by the department to constitute reasonable means of securing work by the individual, under the facts and circumstances of the individual's particular situation:

1. Making application with employers as may reasonably be expected to have openings suitable to the individual.
2. Registering with a placement facility of a school, college, or university if one is available in the individual's occupation or profession.
3. Making application or taking examination for openings in the civil service of a governmental entity with reasonable prospects of suitable work for the individual.
4. Responding to appropriate "want ads" for work which appears suitable to the individual if the response is made in writing or in person or electronically.

5. Any other action which the department finds to constitute an effective means of security work suitable to the individual.

6. No individual, however, is denied benefits solely on the ground that the individual has failed or refused to register with a private employment agency or at any other placement facility which charges the job-seeker a fee for its services. However, an individual may count as one of the work contacts required for the week an in person contact with a private employment agency.

7. An individual is considered to have failed to make an effort to secure work if the department finds that the individual has followed a course of action designed to discourage prospective employers from hiring the individual in suitable work.

The burden is on the claimant to establish that they are able to work, available for work, and actively and earnestly seeking work within the meaning of the law. Iowa Code § 96.6(2); Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22. Claimant sufficiently engaged in reemployment activities for the week-ending December 2, 2023. The warning was not appropriate and will be reversed.

DECISION:

The December 5, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance benefits decision is reversed. The claimant sufficiently engaged in reemployment activities for the week-ending December 2, 2023 and the warning that was issued to him was not appropriate.
