APPEAL 22A-UI-15409-DZ-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 06/26/22
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Ryan T. Hajek DDS PC, the employer/appellant, filed an appeal from the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) July 26, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance (UI) decision that allowed REGULAR (state) UI benefits because the employer's protest was not filed on time. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on August 22, 2022. The employer participated through Ryan T. Hajek, owner. Ms. Eberl participated personally. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the employer's protest filed on time?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: IWD mailed Ms. Eberl's notice of claim notice to the employer at correct address on July 1, 2022. The notice of claim contains a warning that the employer's protest response is due ten days from the initial notice date and gave a due date of July 11, 2022.

The employer received the notice in the mail. The employer's office was closed, and Mr. Hajek was out of the office the week of July 4-8. Mr. Hajek saw the notice, completed it and put it in the employer's mail-to-pick-up box at the end of the day of July 11. The notice was postmarked by the United States Postal Service on July 12. IWD received the notice sometime after July 12.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer's protest of the July 1, 2022 notice was not filed on time.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: "[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final, and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

In this case, the employer's protest was filed on July 12, 2022, which was after the July 11, 2022 deadline. The employer's protest was not filed on time.

DECISION:

The employer's protest of the July 1, 2022 notice was not filed on time. The July 26, 2022 (reference 02) decision is AFFIRMED.
