APPEAL 24A-UI-03042-S2-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 02/18/24
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.10 – Employer/Representative Participation Fact-finding Interview

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed an appeal from the March 8, 2024, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits based upon a determination the claimant was discharged with no showing of misconduct. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on April 10, 2024. Claimant Michael Rideout did not participate. Employer Conagra Foods Packaged Foods, LLC participated through unemployment compensation specialist Tamala Tramble, human resources manager Lisa Henry, and hearing representative Judy Berry. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Did claimant voluntarily leave the employment without good cause attributable to the employer or did employer discharge claimant for reasons related to job misconduct sufficient to warrant a denial of benefits?

Has claimant been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits, and if so, can the repayment of those benefits to the agency be waived?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed full-time as a production technician II from November 28, 2022, and was separated from employment on December 28, 2023, when he quit.

Employer has a policy in place which requires employees to call in if they are not going to be at work. There is also a policy in place which states that if employees are a no-call/no-show for three consecutive work days, they are considered to have abandoned their jobs and are separated from employment. Claimant was aware of the policy.

According to employer, claimant was absent from work without notifying them on December 22, 2023. Claimant was absent from work without calling the next two scheduled shifts, December 27 and December 28, 2023. Claimant did not return phone calls made by employer to find out his whereabouts. Claimant never returned to work. Continuing work was available for claimant and his job was not in jeopardy.

The administrative record reflects that claimant has not received any unemployment insurance benefits since filing a claim with an effective date of February 18, 2024. Employer did participate not participate in the fact-finding interview.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer. As an initial matter, I find the claimant was not discharged but voluntarily quit his employment.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25 provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

- (28) The claimant left after being reprimanded.

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

In this case claimant was absent from work on the following dates: December 22, December 27, and December 28, 2023. Claimant knew that he was supposed to report any absences prior to his scheduled shift start time. Claimant failed to report these absences in violation of the employer's policy.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code § 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

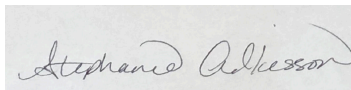

(4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

An employer is entitled to expect its employees to report to work as scheduled or to be notified when and why the employee is unable to report to work. Inasmuch as claimant failed to report for work or notify the employer for three consecutive workdays in violation of the employer policy, claimant is considered to have voluntarily left employment without good cause attributable to the employer.

No benefits have been paid to the claimant and the issues of overpayment and chargeability are moot.

DECISION:

The March 8, 2024, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. Claimant voluntarily quit employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Unemployment insurance benefits funded by the State of Iowa are denied until the claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times their weekly benefit amount after the December 28, 2023 separation date, and provided they are otherwise eligible. The issues of overpayment and chargeability are moot.
