Section 96.4(4) – Requalification

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Bonnie Baker, filed an appeal from a decision dated June 14, 2006, reference 01. The decision found the claimant ineligible to receive unemployment benefits because she had not earned at least $250.00 during or after her previous benefit year. After due notice was issued a hearing was held by telephone conference call on July 11, 2006. The claimant participated on her own behalf.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony of the witness and having examined all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Bonnie Baker filed a claim for unemployment benefits with an effective date of June 5, 2005. She filed a second claim effective June 4, 2006. She has not earned any insured wages since the original filing date of June 5, 2005.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue is whether the claimant has requalified for unemployment benefits.

Iowa Code section 96.4-4 provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

4. The individual has been paid wages for insured work during the individual's base period in an amount at least one and one-quarter times the wages paid to the individual during that quarter of the individual's base period in which the individual's wages were highest; provided that the individual has been paid wages for insured work totaling at least three and five-tenths percent of the statewide average annual wage for insured work, computed for the preceding calendar year if the individual's benefit year begins on or after the first full week in July and computed for the second preceding calendar year if the individual's benefit year begins before the first full week in July, in that calendar quarter in the individual's base period in which the individual's wages were highest, and the individual has been paid wages for insured work totaling at least one-half of the amount of wages required under this subsection in the calendar quarter of the base period in which the individual's wages were highest, in a calendar quarter in the individual's base period other than the calendar quarter in which the individual's wages were highest. The calendar quarter wage requirements shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of ten dollars.

If the individual has drawn benefits in any benefit year, the individual must during or subsequent to that year, work in and be paid wages for insured work totaling at least two hundred fifty dollars, as a condition to receive benefits in the next benefit year.

Bonnie Baker has not earned any insured wages since filing her claim on June 5, 2005. Under the provisions of the above Code section, she has not requalified for benefits.

DECISION:

The representative's decision of June 14, 2006, reference 01, is affirmed. Bonnie Baker is ineligible to receive benefits as she has not requalified by earning $250.00 in insured wages during or after her previous benefit year.
