APPEAL 22A-UI-12847-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

PER MAR SECURITY & RESEARCH CORP

Employer

OC: 07/19/20

Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest

Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On December 14, 2021, Per Mar Security & Research Corp. (employer) filed an appeal from the statement of charges dated November 9, 2021, (reference 03), for the third quarter of 2021. A hearing was scheduled to be held on July 14, 2022, pursuant to due notice. Claimant responded to the hearing notice and was prepared to participate. The employer submitted a written statement on July 13, 2022, indicating it intended to participate in writing. It was not given prior approval by the administrative law judge to do so, and it did not call in to participate at the time of the hearing. However, there was sufficient information in the administrative record and in the employer's appeal to reach a conclusion without additional testimony. Accordingly, no hearing was held.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?

Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The administrative record indicates that no notice of claim was issued with respect to claimant's claim for unemployment insurance benefits. The employer received a statement of charges dated November 9, 2021, for the third quarter of 2021. The statement included a charge for benefits paid to the claimant. The employer filed its appeal of that statement of charges on December 14, 2021. There is no explanation in the employer's materials regarding why the appeal was not filed within 30 days of the date of mailing of the statement of charges.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did not timely file its appeal to the statement of charges.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing. [Emphasis added.]

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:

- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
- c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

The employer failed to timely appeal the claimant's receipt of benefits upon receiving notice. The employer received a statement of charges mailed November 9, 2021. It did not appeal that statement of charges until December 14, 2021, and it has provided no good-cause reason for the delay. The employer did not file its appeal within 30 days of the first notification it had the claimant was receiving benefits.

DECISION:

The November 91, 2021, (reference 03), statement of charges for the third quarter of 2021 is affirmed. The employer did not timely file an appeal from the statement of charges.
