APPEAL 23-UI-09751-CS-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 09/17/23
Claimant: Respondent (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On October 11, 2023, B R Stores Inc (employer) filed an appeal from the October 5, 2023, reference 06, unemployment insurance decision that found the protest untimely and allowed Darhonda L. Whitlock (claimant) to receive benefits. After due notice was issued, a telephone hearing was held on October 30, 2023. The claimant did not participate. The employer participated through Director of Human Resources, Patsi Trotter. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record, including the notice of claim and protest.

ISSUE:

Is the employer's protest timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant separated from employment on May 13, 2022 and filed a claim for benefits effective September 17, 2023. The claimant's weekly benefit amount is $221.00. The administrative record shows the claimant has earned more than $2,210.00 in insured wages since the separation and prior to filing the claim for benefits.

The notice of claim was provided to the employer in the SIDES system with an e-mail alert on September 21, 2023. The notice of claim contains a warning that the employer protest response is due ten days from the initial notice date and gave a response deadline of October 2, 2023. The employer did not file a protest response until October 4, 2023, which is after the ten-day period had expired because the employer mistakenly believed they submitted their protest when they filed their protest for other claimants. Upon checking their records they discovered the protest was not submitted on September 29, 2023, along with the other protests they submitted.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that employer has failed to file protest response within the time period prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark on the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

Another portion of this same Code section dealing with timeliness of an appeal from a representative's decision states that such an appeal must be filed within ten days after notification of that decision was mailed. In addressing an issue of timeliness of an appeal under that portion of this Code section, the Iowa Supreme Court held that this statute prescribing the time for notice of appeal clearly limits the time to do so, and that compliance with the appeal notice provision is mandatory and jurisdictional. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979). The administrative law judge considers the reasoning and holding of the Iowa Supreme Court in that decision to be controlling on this portion of that same Iowa Code section which deals with a time limit in which to file a protest after notification of the filing of the claim has been mailed.

The administrative law judge considers the reasoning and holding of that court in that decision to be controlling on this portion of that same Iowa Code section which deals with a time limit in which to file a protest after notification of the filing of the claim has been mailed. In this case the employer mistakenly forgot to submit the protest online when they submitted their other protests for other claims. The delay was not due to any Agency error or misinformation pursuant to Iowa

Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2). No other good cause reason has been established for the delay. As the employer has failed to timely protest pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.6(2), the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the claimant's termination of employment. See, Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979); Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979) and Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 465 N.W.2d 674 (Iowa Ct. App. 1990).

DECISION:

The October 5, 2023, reference 06, unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The employer has failed to file a timely protest response, and the decision of the representative shall stand and remain in full force and effect.

REMAND:

The issue of whether claimant has earned ten times their benefit amount since their separation from this employer is remanded to the Iowa Workforce Development Benefits Bureau for an initial investigation and determination.
