DECISION

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS ARE DENIED

The Claimant appealed this case to the Employment Appeal Board. The members of the Employment Appeal Board reviewed the entire record. The Appeal Board finds the administrative law judge's decision is correct. With the following modification, the administrative law judge's Findings of Fact and Reasoning and Conclusions of Law are adopted by the Board as its own. The administrative law judge's decision is AFFIRMED with the following MODIFICATION:

The Employment Appeal Board would modify the administrative law judge's Reasoning and Conclusions of Law to include the following as supportive legal analysis:

The Claimant has failed to establish that his allegations ("...that the Employer operated an illegal kitchen...and asked them to cut salary to an unknown amount and suggested to offset the Employer pay some of their personal bills from payroll...") were proven to be good cause attributable to the Employer for quitting his employment.
