KCNG IOWA LLC

APPEAL 23A-UI-10262-PT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 10/08/23
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(3)a – Failure to Accept Work
Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed an appeal from the October 26, 2023 (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that found claimant was eligible for benefits after identifying that claimant had refused an offer of work, as no offer of work had been made. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on November 16, 2023. The claimant did not participate. The employer participated through Executive Assistant Marina Bone. Employer's Exhibit 1 was admitted into evidence. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was a suitable offer of work made to the claimant?
If so, did the claimant fail to accept and was the failure to do so for a good cause reason?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was employed with KCNG Iowa LLC from September 13, 2022 until October 7, 2023. Claimant last performed work on June 15, 2023. The next day, claimant underwent spinal surgery for a non-work related injury and was placed on short-term disability.

On September 12, 2023, claimant exhausted his short-term disability benefits. The next day, the employer mailed claimant a letter instructing claimant to provide additional information from his medical provider about: (1) his medical condition; (2) whether claimant could perform the essential functions of the job with or without a reasonable accommodation; and (3) claimant's expected return-to-work date. The letter instructed claimant that he must provide the requested information by October 6, 2023, or his employment would be terminated.

Claimant did not provide the employer the requested information by October 6, 2023. As claimant failed to return to work or provide the requested information, on October 7, 2023, the employer terminated claimant's employment. Claimant established an original claim for benefits that was effective October 8, 2023, in response to the permanent separation. On October 25, 2023, Iowa Workforce Development issued the reference 01 unemployment insurance decision, which disqualified claimant for benefits based upon his separation from KCNG Iowa LLC. The employer made no offers of work to claimant after his separation from employment.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that no valid offer of work was made to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.5(3) provides, in pertinent part:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

3. Failure to accept work. If the department finds that an individual has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work when directed by the department or to accept suitable work when offered that individual. The department shall, if possible, furnish the individual with the names of employers which are seeking employees. The individual shall apply to and obtain the signatures of the employers designated by the department on forms provided by the department. However, the employers may refuse to sign the forms. The individual's failure to obtain the signatures of designated employers, which have not refused to sign the forms, shall disqualify the individual for benefits until requalified. To requalify for benefits after disqualification under this subsection, the individual shall work in and be paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

a. (1) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the department shall consider the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety, and morals, the individual's physical fitness, prior training, length of unemployment, and prospects for securing local work in the individual's customary occupation, the distance of the available work from the individual's residence, and any other factor which the department finds bears a reasonable relation to the purposes of this paragraph. Work is suitable if the work meets all the other criteria of this paragraph and if the gross weekly wages for the work equal or exceed the following percentages of the individual's average weekly wage for insured work paid to the individual during that quarter of the individual's base period in which the individual's wages were highest:

(a) One hundred percent, if the work is offered during the first week of unemployment.

(b) Ninety percent, if the work is offered during the second through the third week of unemployment.

(c) Eighty percent, if the work is offered during the fourth through the fifth week of unemployment.

(d) Seventy percent, if the work is offered during the sixth through the eighth week of unemployment.

(e) Sixty percent, if the work is offered after the eighth week of unemployment.

(2) However, the provisions of this paragraph shall not require an individual to accept employment below the federal minimum wage.

b. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, no work shall be deemed suitable and benefits shall not be denied under this chapter to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

- (1) If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;
- (2) If the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;
- (3) If as a condition of being employed, the individual would be required to join a company union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.24(14)(a)(b) provides:

Failure to accept work and failure to apply for suitable work. Failure to accept work and failure to apply for suitable work shall be removed when the individual shall have worked in (except in back pay awards) and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

(14) Employment offer from former employer.

a. The claimant shall be disqualified for a refusal of work with a former employer if the work offered is reasonably suitable and comparable and is within the purview of the usual occupation of the claimant. The provisions of Iowa Code section 96.5(3)"b" are controlling in the determination of suitability of work.

b. The employment offer shall not be considered suitable if the claimant had previously quit the former employer and the conditions which caused the claimant to quit are still in existence.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.24(1)a provides:

(1) Bona fide offer of work.

a. In deciding whether or not a claimant failed to accept suitable work, or failed to apply for suitable work, it must first be established that a bona fide offer of work was made to the individual by personal contact or that a referral was offered to the claimant by personal contact to an actual job opening and a definite refusal was made by the individual. For purposes of a recall to work, a registered letter shall be deemed to be sufficient as a personal contact.

The record reflects that the employer, in error, stated in its claim protest that the claimant refused an offer of work, when the issue was actually, whether the claimant may have refused to perform work in his existing employment, which led to separation. Therefore, the administrative law judge concludes there was no valid offer of work made to the claimant for him to decline. The issue of claimant's October 7, 2023, permanent separation from employment was addressed in the October 25, 2023, reference 01 decision. Benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The October 26, 2023, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. No valid offer of work was made by the employer. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.
