EMILEA BILICK

APPEAL 24A-UI-03093-ED-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 10/15/23
Claimant: Appellant (1R)

Section 96.3-7 – Recovery of Overpayment of Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant, Emilea Billick, appealed a representative's decision that she was overpaid unemployment benefits dated March 11, 2024 (reference 2) and a hearing was scheduled for April 11, 2024. Claimant, Emilea Billick did participate. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record. No exhibits were offered or admitted into evidence.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether claimant is overpaid unemployment insurance benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The overpayment issue in this case was created by a Monetary redetermination that was dated February 16, 2024. The claimant did not receive the redetermination in the mail and did not have an opportunity to dispute the redetermination. The first the claimant learned of the redetermination dated February 16, 2024, was when she received the overpayment decision issued on March 11, 2024. Claimant received $4,320.00 in regular unemployment benefits for the 16 weeks between October 15, 2023 and February 3, 2024.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.3(7), provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.

a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

b. (1) (a) If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5. The employer shall not be relieved of charges if benefits are paid because the employer or an agent of the employer failed to respond timely or adequately to the department's request for information relating to the payment of benefits. This prohibition against relief of charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers. If the department determines that an employer's failure to respond timely or adequately was due to insufficient notification from the department, the employer's account shall not be charged for the overpayment.

(b) However, provided the benefits were not received as the result of fraud or willful misrepresentation by the individual, benefits shall not be recovered from an individual if the employer did not participate in the initial determination to award benefits pursuant to section 96.6, subsection 2, and an overpayment occurred because of a subsequent reversal on appeal regarding the issue of the individual's separation from employment.

(2) An accounting firm, agent, unemployment insurance accounting firm, or other entity that represents an employer in unemployment claim matters and demonstrates a continuous pattern of failing to participate in the initial determinations to award benefits, as determined and defined by rule by the department, shall be denied permission by the department to represent any employers in unemployment insurance matters. This subparagraph does not apply to attorneys or counselors admitted to practice in the courts of this state pursuant to section 602.10101.

The administrative law judge concludes that claimant is overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $4,320.00 for the 16 week period from October 15, 2023 to February 3, 2024 pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.3-7 and pending the decision issued in the remanded matter.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated March 11, 2024 (reference 02), is affirmed pending the decision issued in the remanded matter. Claimant is overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $4,320.00.

REMAND:

The issue of whether the claimant's Monetary Record redetermined on February 19, 2024 is correct is remanded to the Benefits Bureau for investigation and determination.
