Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On August 9, 2023, claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated July 18, 2023, (reference 02) that held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits after a separation from employment. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephonic hearing was held at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, August 24, 2023. The claimant participated personally. The employer participated through Human Resources Manager Victoria Stremel and was represented by Corporate Cost Control Hearing Representative Kelly Ray. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether the claimant's appeal is timely.
Whether claimant voluntarily quit employment without good cause attributable to employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The unemployment insurance decision (reference 02) was mailed to the claimant's address of record on July 18, 2023. Claimant received the decision within the appeal period.

The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Bureau by July 28, 2023. However, if the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. As July 28, 2023, was a Friday, the deadline for claimant to submit his appeal was Friday, July 28, 2023. Claimant electronically submitted his appeal on August 9, 2023, which is after the appeal deadline noticed on the decision.

Claimant explained that he waited to file his appeal because he already had a hearing scheduled in early August for an appeal involving his separation from a different employer. Claimant wanted to resolve the first appeal before filing a second appeal. Claimant explained that he had received multiple decisions in the mail and that he had found process confusing. The undersigned finds credible claimant's explanation that he was confused due to having received multiple decisions in the mail. However, the undersigned finds less credible claimant's brief assertion that an Iowa Workforce Development representative told him he needed to wait to file his appeal until after the appeal deadline.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's appeal was untimely.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: "[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision."

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

The weight of the evidence establishes that the July 18, 2023 (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision was delivered to the claimant's address of record in a timely manner, prior to the July 28, 2023, appeal deadline, but claimant did not submit his appeal until after the deadline. Claimant's delay was not due to agency error or misinformation or delay of the United States Postal Service. Rather, claimant's delayed response was because claimant had been confused due to receiving multiple decisions in the mail and claimant wanted resolve his first appeal before filing a second appeal. Because the delay in this instance is attributable to the claimant, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant has shown no good cause reason for the delay. The claimant's appeal was not timely filed and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal. See, Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979); see also, Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The July 18, 2023, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The appeal in this case was not timely, and the decision of the representative that denied benefits remains in effect.
