APPEAL 21A-UI-00016-AD-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

SWIFT PORK COMPANY

Employer

OC: 05/17/20

Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Eligibility – Able to and Available for Work

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) - Filing - Timely Appeal

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(10) - Leave of Absence

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On November 16, 2020, Retlimon T Kristoph (claimant/appellant) filed an appeal from the October 5, 2020 (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits as of May 17, 2020 based on a finding claimant was not partially unemployed.

A telephone hearing was held on February 2, 2021. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. Claimant participated personally. Employer did not register a number for the hearing and did not participate. Language Link participated from interpretation services.

Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUE(S):

I. Is the appeal timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The Unemployment Insurance Decision was mailed to claimant at the above address on August 5, 2020. That was claimant's correct address on that date. The decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by Iowa Workforce Development Appeals Section by October 15, 2020. Claimant appealed the decision online on November 16, 2020.

Claimant's address has not changed since the decision was mailed. Claimant does not know when the decision arrived or how long it was between when he became aware of the decision and when he filed the appeal.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's appeal was untimely. The administrative law judge therefore lacks jurisdiction to change the decision that was appealed. That decision remains in full force and effect.

lowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: "[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision."

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1)(a) provides:

- 1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:
- (a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark on the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.
- (b)
- (c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

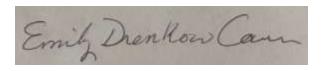

There is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and the Administrative Law Judge has no authority to change the decision of representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dept. Job Service, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (lowa 1979). The ten-day period for appealing an initial determination concerning a claim for benefits has been described as jurisdictional. Messina v. Iowa Dept. of Job Service. 341 N.W.2d 52, 55 (Iowa 1983); Beardslee v. Iowa Dept. Job Service, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979). The only basis for changing the ten-day period would be where notice to the appealing party was constitutionally invalid. E.g. Beardslee v. Iowa Dept. Job Service, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (lowa 1979). The question in such cases becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. lowa Employment Sec. Commission, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. Iowa Employment Sec. Commission, 212 N.W.2d 471 (Iowa 1973). The question of whether the Claimant has been denied a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal is also informed by rule 871-24.35(2) which states that "the submission of any ...appeal...not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service."

The letter was mailed to the correct address. Claimant's address has not changed. Claimant does not know when the decision arrived or how long it was between when he became aware of the decision and when he filed the appeal.

Any delay by claimant was due to his decision not to check his mail on a regular and frequent basis and not due to any agency error or misinformation or delay of the United States Postal Service. The administrative law judge further concludes that the appeal was not timely and, therefore, the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal.

DECISION:

The administrative law judge concludes the claimant's appeal was untimely. The administrative law judge therefore lacks jurisdiction to change the decision that was appealed. That decision remains in full force and effect.
