Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j – Voluntary Quitting – Temporary Employment
Iowa Code § 96.3-7 – Recovery of Overpayment of Benefits
871 IA Admin. Code 24(10) – Employer Participation in Fact Finding

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated May 19, 2022, reference 01, which held claimant eligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on July 11, 2022. Claimant participated personally. Employer participated by Sarah Fiedler. Employer's exhibit's one was admitted into evidence.

ISSUES:

Did the claimant quit by not reporting for an additional work assignment within three business days of the end of the last assignment?

Whether claimant was overpaid benefits?

If claimant was overpaid benefits, should claimant repay benefits or should employer be charged due to employer's participation or lack thereof in fact finding?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was last assigned at Henry County Health Center from August 13, 2021, and was separated from the assignment, but not the employment, on April 29, 2022. At the time the employer notified the claimant that the assignment had ended, it also advised the claimant that there was a potential assignment available at a dollar less an hour and working ten-hour days. Claimant did not respond to this notice of a job opportunity. Claimant did not request placement in a new assignment pursuant to the employer's notification requirement. It does have a policy that complies with the specific terms of Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's separation was not with good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1)j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. (1) The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

(2) To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph:

(a) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their workforce during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(b) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

Since employer provided evidence that it presented claimant with a written copy of the reporting policy according to the specific terms of Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j, claimant needed to be in contact with employer within three days of the ending of the placement with Henry County Hospital requesting a new placement in order to preserve her opportunity for unemployment benefits. As she did not do so, unemployment benefits in this matter are denied.

DECISION:

The May 19, 2022, (reference 01) decision is affirmed. The claimant's separation from employment was not attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied as claimant was not in contact with employer within three days of the ending of the placement.
