APPEAL 24A-UI-02664-DS
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 02/18/24
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On March 6, 2024, the employer timely appealed a representative's decision dated March 4, 2024, (Reference 01) that denied benefits for the week of February 18, 2024, through February 24, 2024. A telephone hearing was held on April 2, 2024. The claimant participated personally. The employer participated through Samantha Steiner, Human Resources Payroll Recruiter. No exhibits were offered or admitted to the record. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant able to and available for work?
Is the claimant totally, partially or temporarily unemployed?
Is the employer's account subject to charge?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The claimant has worked as an Electrical Apprentice for this employer since June 20, 2023, and is still an employee. The claimant was laid off by the employer during the week in question and attended a training session. The employer did not have work available for the claimant during the week of February 18, 2024, through February 24, 2024. The employer's witness testified that the employer mistakenly indicated otherwise in its response to the Department.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant is able to work or available for work. The employer did not have work available to the claimant during the week in question, and its account is subject to charge.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market.

The claimant is able to work and available for work within the meaning of the law. The employer did not have work available to the claimant during the week of February 18, 2024, through February 24, 2024. The claimant was laid off during that week, and benefits are allowed.

DECISION:

The March 4, 2024, (Reference 01) unemployment insurance decision denying benefits is REVERSED. Benefits are allowed from February 18, 2024, through February 24, 2024, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.
