STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On August 25, 2022, Ryan Duggan (claimant/appellant) filed an appeal from the August 22, 2022, reference 02, unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on a finding that the claimant was still employed in his job at the same hours and same wages as the original contract of hire and denied benefits effect July 17, 2022. A telephone hearing was held at on September 22, 2022 pursuant to due notice. The claimant, Ryan Duggan , participated and testified. The employer John Deere Company did not participate. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant is totally, partially or temporarily unemployed.

Whether claimant is able to and available for work.

Whether claimant is still employed at the same hours and wages.

Whether employer's account is subject to charge.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer on June 6, 2022. Claimant last worked as a full-time resource pool employee. Claimant filed for weekly benefits with an original claims date of July 17, 2022. The claimant filed for benefits for the one-week period ending July 23, 2022, The claimant worked 44.58 hours that week for the employer. The claimant was laid off due to lack of work the following week-ending July 30, 2022, but the claimant failed to file for weekly benefits for that week. The claimant filed for benefits a week too early and failed to file for weekly benefits for the week he was laid off. The claimant remains employed with the employer.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant was employed and working the week-ending July 23, 2022 and benefits are denied effective July 17, 2022.

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. R. 871-24.23(26) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(26) Where a claimant is still employed in a part-time job at the same hours and wages as contemplated in the original contract for hire and is not working on a reduced workweek basis difference from the contract for hire, such claimant cannot be considered partially unemployed.

The claimant filed for benefits for a week in which he worked full-time hours. The claimant's failure to file for benefits for the week ending July 30, 2022, is an error on the claimant's part and the Administrative Law Judge lacks the authority to correct the claimant's filing error. The claimant is advised to read the Claimant's handbook prior to filing any future claims to avoid making careless mistakes that result in the claimant not receiving benefits. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The August 22, 2022, reference 02, unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The claimant was not totally, partially, or temporarily unemployed for the week-ending July 23, 2022, and benefits are denied effective July 17, 2022.
