ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS DIVISION, UI APPEALS BUREAU

DANIEL F CUTLER
Claimant

CASEY'S MARKETING COMPANY
Employer

APPEAL 23A-UI-03005-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 12/19/21
Claimant: Respondent (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges
Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On March 14, 2023, Casey's Marketing Company (employer) filed an appeal from the statement of charges dated February 9, 2023, (reference 05), for the fourth quarter of 2022. A hearing was held on April 6, 2023, pursuant to due notice. Daniel F. Cutler (claimant) did not participate. The employer participated through Account Executive Marideliz Ortiz. The department's Exhibits D-1 through D-3 were admitted into the record. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?
Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant last separated from employment on July 2, 2022. However, it appears that there may have been a previous period of employment, as well, that ended in the second quarter of 2021. Claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of December 19, 2021. The notice of claim was provided to the employer via the online SIDES system on December 23, 2021, with a response due date of January 3, 2022. A response was recorded on December 31, 2021. The first notice of the claimant's claim for benefits was the receipt of the statement of charges mailed February 9, 2023, for the fourth quarter of 2022. The employer's appeal is postmarked March 14, 2023. However, the postage meter date is March 13, 2023. The witness testified that the postage meter mark accurately reflects the date on which the appeal was transmitted to the post office. The 30-day deadline for timely appeal occurred on March 13, 2023.

The issues of whether the claimant's separation qualifies him for benefits and whether claimant was requalified for benefits since the separation from employment have not yet been investigated or adjudicated by the Benefits Bureau.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did file a timely appeal to the statement of charges.

The first issue to be considered in this appeal is whether the appeal is timely. The administrative law judge determines it is.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

- (a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

- (b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

- (c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

Because the employer transmitted the appeal to the post office on March 13, 2023, it has met the deadline for the appeal to be considered timely. Any delay in affixing a postmark is due to delay by the United States Postal Service. The appeal is timely filed.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

Filing – determination – appeal.

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

Employer contribution and reimbursements.

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:

- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
- c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

The employer filed its appeal of the statement of charges within the time period prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law. It submitted a timely response to the notice of claim. The employer's appeal of the statement of charges within thirty days is timely.

The issues of whether the claimant's separation qualifies him for benefits and whether claimant has requalified for benefits since the separation are remanded to the Benefits Bureau for a fact-finding interview and unemployment insurance decision.

DECISION:

The February 9, 2023, (reference 05), statement of charges for the fourth quarter of 2022 is AFFIRMED, pending the outcome of the remanded issue. The employer has filed a timely appeal from that statement of charges.

REMAND:

The issues of whether the claimant's separation qualifies claimant for benefits and whether claimant has requalified for benefits since this separation are remanded to the Benefits Bureau for fact-finding interviews and unemployment insurance decisions.
