DAN ANDERSON, IWD

(Administrative Law Judge)

July 29, 2005

(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.4-3 - Able and Available
Section 96.5-8 - Administrative Penalty
871 IAC 25.9(2) - Penalties

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from an Iowa Workforce Development Department decision dated June 29, 2005, reference 01, which disqualified the claimant from receiving benefits for a period from June 19, 2005 to October 8, 2005, due to a prior overpayment based on misrepresentation.

The hearing was held pursuant to due notice on July 25, 2005, by telephone conference call. The claimant participated. Cindy Stroud, Investigator, participated on behalf of Iowa Workforce Development, Investigations and Recovery.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony of the witnesses, and having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: The claimant was the subject of an audit and investigation on her claim for benefits effective November 23, 2003. A representative of Iowa Workforce Development issued a decision dated May 18, 2004 that the claimant was over paid benefits $282.00 due to misrepresentation. The department issued a further decision on August 20, 2004 that the claimant was overpaid benefits $590.51 due to misrepresentation. The decisions were not appealed, and they have now become final.

When the claimant filed her most recent claim effective May 8, 2005, a department representative notified Investigator Stroud. Stroud mailed a warning letter to the claimant dated May 11, 2005 that the department was considering a penalty on her current unemployment claim due to her prior overpayment. The claimant did respond to the notice. Although the claimant did not remember the decisions, she did recall receiving overpayment statements from the department.

The department has a policy of imposing a penalty range of sixteen weeks to the remainder of a benefit year when the misrepresentation overpayment involves eight weeks. The claimant's overpayment(s) did total eight-weeks, and she did not make any repayment prior to filing her recent claim.

Stroud elected to impose a minimum penalty period of sixteen weeks or two-weeks of disqualification for each of the eight-weeks the claimant failed to report earnings that caused the overpayments.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The first issue is whether the claimant is able and available for work.

Iowa Code Section 96.4-3 provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work.

The further issue is whether the administrative penalty imposed is correct.

Iowa Code Section 96.5-8 provides:

8. Administrative Penalty. If the department finds that, with respect to any week of an insured worker's unemployment for which such person claims credit or benefits, such person has, within the thirty-six calendar months immediately preceding such week, with intent to defraud by obtaining benefits not due under this chapter, willfully and knowingly failed to disclose a material fact; such person shall be disqualified for the week in which the department makes such determination, and forfeit all benefit rights under the unemployment compensation law for a period of not more than the remaining benefit period as determined by the department according to the circumstances of each case. Any penalties imposed by this subsection shall be in addition to those otherwise prescribed in this chapter.

871 IAC 25.9(2) provides:

b. The general guide for disqualifications for deliberate falsification for the purpose of obtaining or increasing unemployment insurance benefits is listed below. It is intended to be used as a guide only and is not a substitute for the personal subjective judgment of the investigator because each case must be decided on its own merits. The administrative penalty recommended for falsification ranges from three weeks through the end of the benefit year.

The administrative law judge concludes that the administrative penalty imposed by the department is correct pursuant to Iowa Code Section 96.4-3 and Iowa Code Section 96.5-8. The claimant was the subject of overpayment decisions due to misrepresentation within the time period established by the law, which were not appealed, and they have now become final. The 16-week period of disqualification imposed by the department is within the administrative penalty discretion of the law.

DECISION:

The decision of Iowa Workforce Development dated June 29, 2005, reference 01, is AFFIRMED. The claimant is disqualified from receiving benefits for the 16-week period ending October 8, 2005.
