STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The claimant filed an appeal of a representative's decision dated June 1, 2010, reference 02. A Notice of Telephone Hearing was mailed to all parties on July 12, 2010 setting a hearing date of July 30, 2010 at 9:30 AM. The notice contained instructions regarding how to participate in the telephone hearing. Neither the appellant nor any representative from Iowa Workforce Development (the Department) called in to participate in the hearing at the date and time indicated.

The Iowa Administrative Procedure Act provides that if a party fails to appear or participate in a contested case proceeding after proper service of notice, the presiding officer may enter a default decision.¹ Iowa Workforce Development regulations give the presiding officer discretion regarding whether to proceed with a hearing in the absence of one or more of the parties.² In this case, a hearing was not held and a default decision was entered against the appellant.

The challenge for the administrative law judge when neither party appears for a contested case hearing is that the administrative file is typically not sufficient, without testimony from either the appellant or the Department, to review. A contested case hearing is designed to flesh out both the reasoning of the Department in making the decision and the appellant's justification for appeal. The task of the administrative law judge is to determine, after careful consideration of the evidence available, whether the Department's decision under appeal was correct. This task is rendered nearly impossible when neither party appears for hearing. Additionally, it seems an incredible waste of judicial resources to issue lengthy decisions on the merits in cases where neither party has enough investment in the outcome to appear at the contested case hearing and support its position.

DECISION

The appellant's appeal is dismissed. The Department's decision dated June 1, 2010, reference 02, is affirmed. The Department shall take any action necessary to implement this decision.
