(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.6-2 - Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code Chapter 95 - Requalification

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer appealed the representative's decision dated April 19, 2005, reference 03, that concluded it failed to file a timely protest regarding the claimant's separation from employment on April 1, 2004, and no disqualification of unemployment insurance benefits was imposed. After due notice was issued, a hearing was scheduled on May 20, 2005, before Administrative Law Judge Julie Elder. Department's Exhibit D-1 was admitted to the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The claimant's notice of claim was mailed to the employer's address of record on April 5, 2005.

The employer filed a protest on April 17, 2005. The claimant has requalified for benefits since the separation from the employer.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6-2 provides in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

The administrative law judge concludes that the employer filed its protest within the time period prescribed by Iowa Employment Security Law because they did not receive the original notice of claim on time and did protest when they received it. This is sufficient evidence of intent to protest any potential charges to their account. The administrative law judge further concludes that the claimant has requalified for benefits since the separation from this employer. Accordingly, benefits are allowed and the account of the employer shall not be charged.

DECISION:

The April 19, 2005, reference 03, decision is modified in favor of the appellant. The employer has filed a timely protest, and the claimant has requalified for benefits since the separation. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible. The account of the employer shall not be charged.
