(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Iowa Code §96.4(3) - Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed a timely appeal from the June 8, 2005, reference 03, decision that denied benefits. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on July 1, 2005. Claimant did participate. Employer did participate through Judy Rebik.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant's truck is not in drivable condition and the engine needs to be replaced, so she was unwilling to accept work outside of Marshalltown while waiting to be recalled to Fischer Control after the first assignment ended on March 28. As of June 15, claimant began driving her father in law's car and is working at Fisher Control again as of June 20.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant is not able to work and available for work.

Iowa Code section 96.4-3 provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph 1, or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

871 IAC 24.22(2) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

871 IAC 24.23(4)(21) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(4) If the means of transportation by an individual was lost from the individual's residence to the area of the individual's usual employment, the individual will be deemed not to have met the availability requirements of the law. However, an individual shall not be disqualified for restricting employability to the area of usual employment. (See subrule 24.24(7).

(21) Where availability for work is unduly limited because the claimant is waiting to go to work for a specific employer and will not consider suitable work with other employers.

Claimant's limitation on her availability to travel to work in Newton, her unwillingness to accept work at other employers than Fisher Controls, and her loss of reliable transportation render her unavailable to work. Accordingly, benefits are denied effective April 3, 2005, through June 18, 2005.

DECISION:

The June 8, 2005, reference 03, decision is modified in favor of respondent. The claimant is not able to work and available for work effective April 3, 2005, through June 18, 2005. Benefits are denied for that period.
