Section 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Marilyn E. Lloyd filed an appeal from an unemployment insurance decision dated September 9, 2010, reference 03, that disqualified her for benefits. Before a hearing could be scheduled, a the Agency issued a subsequent fact-finding decision on October 27, 2010. That decision allows benefits to Ms. Lloyd while relieving the employer, Midwest Professional Staffing, LLC from charges. Under these circumstances, a hearing is not required.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits?

Should the employer be relieved of charges for benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having examined all matters of record, the administrative law judge finds: The fact-finding decision dated October 27, 2010, reference 04, allows benefits to Marilyn E. Lloyd and relieves Midwest Professional Staffing, LLC of charges for those benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes that this appeal is moot because of subsequent Agency action.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated September 9, 2010, reference 03, is reversed. The claimant is entitled to receive unemployment insurance benefits, provided she is otherwise eligible. No benefits shall be charged to the account of Midwest Professional Staffing, LLC.
